The 1964 Falcon

Prologue

Myriad faces and voices, near and far away, ever-changing and never-changing, distinct and indistinguishable, but all swelling into a grand crescendo of hope and life and ambition—and all having a common denominator: our experiences, our friendships, the heartthrobs and exaltations that have enriched our lives . . . the close bonds of friendship meaning so much more than is outwardly apparent . . . the breakthrough of repressed anxieties revealed in an echoing roar after the vital extra point is kicked . . . the lone, throbbing sound of a typewriter reaching far into the night . . . bits and pieces of "almost memories"—vague reminiscences—producing a whole.

This then is Flora—1964—our ways, our ideas, and ourselves. It will be a year long remembered but never quite duplicated. It is the Flora we have loved and the Flora we have "hated." It reflects our ultimate goals, desires, ideals—the striving always for the better . . . for the higher. It is a season in our life that will always be . . . A TIME WORTH REMEMBERING.

Dedication

The devotion of a school to a successful coach is always a powerful thing. In James Wannie Pinkerton, A. C. Flora has such a coach, and its devotion to him is correspondingly strong. And yet there exists here something more than a devotion; it is a very real feeling of awe and respect for a man. One can sense it as the student body rises like a wall of sound while a stocky man walks from the wings and steps easily onto the platform. One can see and hear it in the turned heads and covered whispers as that man walks through the halls or into a classroom. And, in the dimly lit confines of a half-time locker room, one can almost touch it—so deeply is it etched on each strained, sweating face.

And so it is that the FALCON Staff, with a deep sense of pride and respect, dedicates this, the 1964 FALCON, to—

Mr. James Wannie Pinkerton

Faculty and Administration

Dr. A. C. Flora has been Columbia's most outstanding officer in the field of public education. Recognized as a foremost educator on the city, state, and national level, Dr. Flora has helped our school advance to a position of high prominence. It is our sincere desire that our school may continue to be a living tribute to his dedication and work.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Flora, our guests on many occasions, look over last year's annual.

Doctors Varn, Flora Lead Educators In Columbia

Entering their home in Columbia, Superintendent Guy L. Varn and Mrs. Varn have time for a picture.

To the students at Flora, Dr. Guy L. Varn, Superintendent of the Columbia City Schools, is not only an efficient administrator but a loyal supporter and friend. Above all he has shown a keen interest in raising our academic standards by making all the newest materials available to us. His hard work is inspiring to many.

Mr. J. K. Blum Holds Us To High Ideals

Holding fast to the best in the past, but ever mindful of the changes in the present, Mr. J. K. Blum, Principal, inspires students and faculty alike toward the best in the future. His enthusiasm for developing a large number of Merit Scholars is equaled by his concern for the "also-rans." His office is a haven for all confused college-bound seniors. He is readily accessible to uncertain juniors. And his jovial manner has eased the uncertainty of many a sophomore. He is a part of Flora who will never be forgotten.

Promptly at 8:30 Mr. J. K. Blum prepares to take charge of all Flora activities.

Mr. Blum aids Miss Carolyn Reed, a practice teacher, in the French language lab.

Dorothy Sterling a senior, talks with Miss Grace Sease about her next year's college plans.

Counseling, guiding and advising students in their efforts to select a college, planning for employment and schedules, and solving personal problems is in essence what Miss Grace Sease, our Assistant Principal, means to all Flora Falcons. But she is more than this—for all who come in contact with her deeply respect and love her.

Administration Guides Flora To New Heights

Mrs. W. J. Mixson not only serves as an office secretary for Mr. Blum and Miss Sease, but she also aids teachers and students with their many requests. Her warmth and friendliness has left a deep impression on all who have known her.

Mrs. Mixson listens to a request for another transcript.

Mrs. Boulware sends another permanent record through the duplicating machine.

Mrs. M. L. Boulware's work in the main office has been invaluable in the efficient management of the school. In her gentle and dignified manner, she has shown us that all teaching is not done in the classroom.

Mr. W. E. Carson, Head Teacher, and Miss Mildred Brown, Counselor for School A, discuss holiday plans with Mrs. W. E. McKinney.

Directing all activities for School B are Mrs. R. C. Gilbert, Counselor, and Mr. Jerry Redman, Head Teacher.

Little School System Proves Unique

Mrs. Mary Tweed, School C's Counselor, and Mr. T. W. Stokes, Head Teacher in School C, cross their fingers before trying to run off another test.

Mrs. Charles C. Foster and Mr. Raymond L. Coxe, Counselor and Head Teacher of School D, smile as they leave school after a busy day.

Discussing the ruins of the Roman Forum with Carla Worthington is Miss Mildred Brown, Head of the Foreign Language Department.

Mrs. M. G. Jordan, Head of the Commercial Arts Department, catches up on her typing in a spare moment.

Putting a final touch on the American Education Week Display in School D is Mrs. Charles C. Foster, Head of the English Department.

Phil Leventis, President of the Senior Class, conducts a class meeting. Assisting him are the other officers of the Senior Class: Nancy McMeen, Secretary; Bobby Robinson, Vice-President; and Shirley Olson, Treasurer.

Seniors . . . At Last!

Bobby Robinson, Chairman of Class Night Committee, gets help from other committee chairmen. Appearing in the picture are: Ben Miller, Robes; Wayne Nidiffer, Graduation; Beth Vogel, Invitations; Mac Macmurphy, Jr.-Sr. Dance; and Ann McDonald, Senior Banquet. Sandra Dawkins, Chairman of the Commencement Sermon, was not present.

That so-called "magical Senior world" occurs only once. It is a time of acute anxiety about college acceptances. A time when true friendships that will probably last the rest of one's life are strengthened, and the love for a school becomes more concrete.

This love is not a superficial one, for Flora has moulded her seniors—moulded them into a form that they might shape tomorrow's destiny.

There was the cramming, the studying, and the playing—times that happen once and only to a Senior. And with their final moment—Graduation—hearts filled with tears are resplendent and proud. In this instant they yearn to relive past glories—for only memories are left. But what is now an enshrined memory—a time worth remembering—will be remembered as the stepping stone to success.

Two Seniors Attend Boys'-Girls' Nation

Each year the American Legion sponsors Boys' and Girls' State. This program is part of the American Legion's "Americanism" program. Through it, the Legion attempts to teach government by participation.

The participants are placed in small groups called cities, each being named after a South Carolina river. As the week progresses, governments are elected on the city and county scale—the county composed of three individual cities.

The two political parties, the Nationalists and the Federalists, hold their own state convention. Each party nominates a slate of officers, and holds a general election. With the completion of this election, every state, county, and local office has been filled by a member of Girls' or Boys' State.

Flora received great distinction in that two of her seniors went to Girls' and Boys' Nation held in Washington, D. C. Phil Leventis served as a Supreme Court Justice while in Washington, and Sandra Dawkins served as the Ambassador to Morocco.

Through this experience, these few students received a lesson in democracy and in the American way of government.

Seeing Phil Leventis and Sandra Dawkins, off to the airport to attend Boys' and Girls' Nation in Washington, D. C. are Flora's other delegates to Boys' and Girls' State—Claude Belk, Bobby Robinson, and Mary Giles.

Outstanding Seniors Chosen For Award

While much publicity is often given to the indiscretions of youth and to the two or three percent of youth who make grave errors, the great mass of our youth goes unrecognized and unsung. The Youth Appreciation Week developed by the Optimists Club is to call attention to the fact that vast numbers of youth still perform their duties in a dedicated manner—that they remain as good citizens—that they participate and contribute to their schools and to their communities. The individual recognized as Outstanding Youths are the symbols of the whole student body. It is a great honor to be chosen for it shows outstanding citizenship, leadership, character, and integrity in the individual.

Waiting for Mr. Blum to present the Optimist Youth Awards, the award recipients discuss college and graduation plans. They are: Sharon Shipp, Mark Coplan, Margaret Seay, Ellen Seastrunk, Steve Cremer, Clint McCrory, Mac Coble, Honey Kropp, Don Bushman, and Ann McDonald.

Flora With 18 Merit Semi-Finalists Boasts Most In The State

The National Merit Program is the largest independent undergraduate scholarship program in the United States. It is directed by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, an independent nonprofit organization, devoted solely to scholarship activities. These scholarships provide the ablest high school graduates with opportunities to further their education on the college level. Merit Semi-finalists are selected on the basis of the NMSQT, or National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, a three-hour exam which is administered to juniors in the spring. Less than one per cent of the high school seniors in each state become semi-finalists. Seniors who maintain a high level of achievement on subsequent tests and receive the endorsement of their schools become Merit Finalists. From this group of Finalists are chosen the Merit Scholars.

This year Flora is proud to have eighteen Merit Semi-finalists—more than has any other school in the state. Letters of Commendation went to eight other students. All students in the nation who scored 136 or better are eligible to receive Letters of Commendation, while the cutting score for Semi-finalists is determined for each state. The highest score at Flora this year was 152. These students bring honor to their parents, to themselves, and to Flora. In producing such outstanding students, A. C. Flora has established a well-deserved reputation of scholastic achievement.

Our Special Falcon . . .

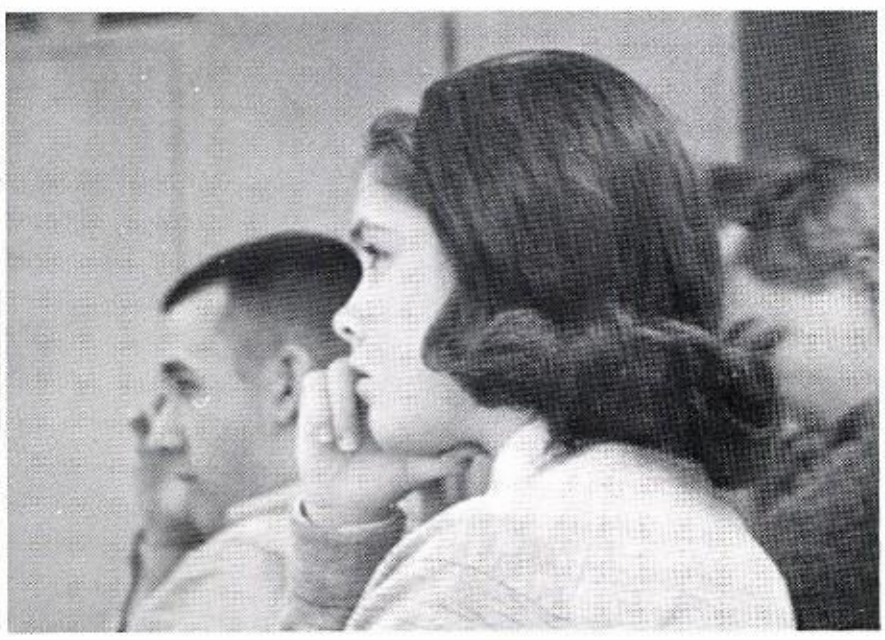
"Are you sure this is the right way?" asks Thérèse.

Thérèse Toussaint is from Nancy, France, where she lives with her parents, two brothers, and three sisters. Her "adopted" family this year is that of Dr. C. Tucker Weston of 1548 Kathwood Drive.

Wishing to learn much about America and its way of life and to tell us about France, Thérèse has actively participated in the Flora Anchor Club, Student Council, and JETS Club. Two of the highlights of her year at Flora were her attending the colorful Mardi Gras in New Orleans and the spectacular World's Fair in New York.

Thérèse has added more to Flora than we could ever repay. To us she will always be—"Our Special Falcon."

Thérèse listens intently as an explanation is given in Advanced Mathematics.



Enjoying her first "taste" of a Flora Christmas, Thérèse tells Santa what she would like.

Always on the move, the Weston family—Mary, Dr. Weston, Frances, Stuart, Thérèse, Chris, and Mrs. Weston, prepare for a camping trip in the Smoky Mountains.

Mary Weston, Secretary, checks her notes, Pat McLaughlin, Treasurer, talks to the banker; while Pope Lawson, President, discusses future plans with Sandy Daniel, Vice-President.

Junior Class Reaches New Heights

Time has elapsed; new juniors have emerged. Vibrant faces greet new challenges—new responsibilities. Hastening footsteps meet new tasks as eager hands mold the personality and distinguishing characteristics of Flora. The realization that work improves character spurs the Junior Class toward new heights, goals, and achievements.

Flora's Miss Hi Miss, Ellen DaVega, checks beauty entrants for the Miss Falcon Contest.

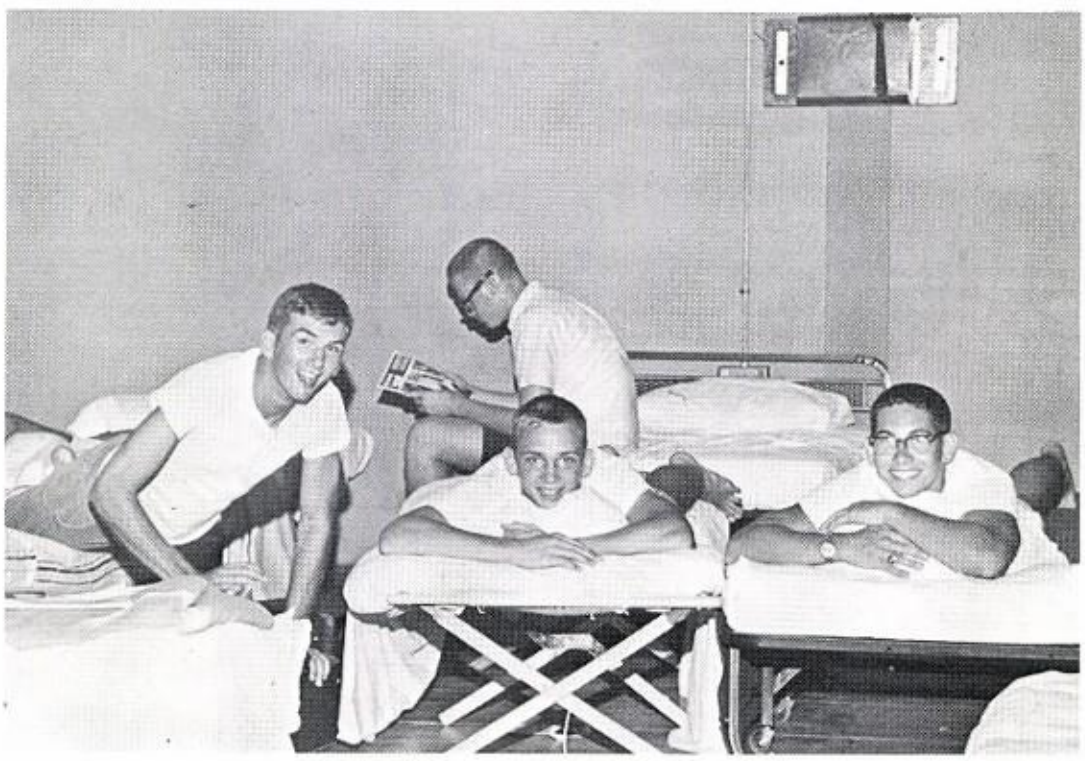
What do you mean—girls at football camp???



Bobby - It's really been great knowing you this year especially. Looking forward to seeing you next year. Have a nice Summer. And Come See me if you get the time - Stay as neat as you're now. Love ya! Ginny Yikes!! That cat I dissected in anatomy—it moved!!!

Duh!!!

Jon Slocom, President, assisted by Jody Miot, Vice-President; Sherry Gomez, Secretary, and Martie Daetwyler, Treasurer; lead the Sophomore Class toward their goals.

Sophomores Are On The Way Up . . .

Smiling faces—some new, others well known, gladden our hearts. All combine to give warmth and freshness. An energetic vitality fills the halls of Flora as happy, carefree sophomores scurry from class to class. Continuously doing more than their share, the Sophomore Class has shown spirit, effort and constant devotion. With these characteristics, A. C. Flora's Class of '66 will rise to new heights in the history of their school.

The Homeroom Presidents work hard. Sophomore Homeroom Presidents—Hugh Corbett, Linda Dorsey, Bobby Giles, Kitty Hiller, Henry Thomas, Temple Ligon, Gail Garvin, Jimmie Williams, Becky Bowers, Kathy Brown, Frank Barton, Susie Bennett, and Jo Ella Craig assist the maintenance department by setting up the chairs for assembly.

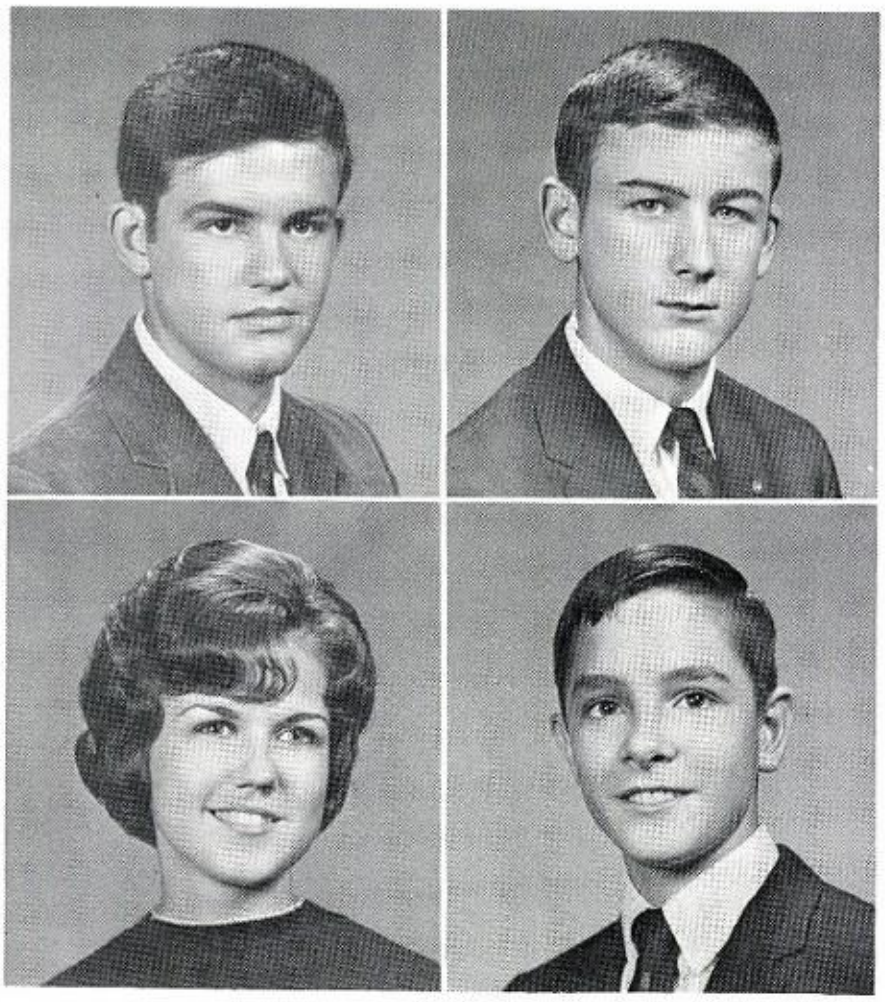
Activities



Through Student Council, students of A. C. Flora are given a hand in their own governing, thus broadening their knowledge of the principles of democracy and enabling them to become better citizens.

Student Council promotes the school's welfare by serving as a link between the students and faculty, by coordinating the activities of the students, and by setting high moral standards for the students to follow.

First semester Student Council officers: Keith Belser, President; Dave Merry, Vice-President; Sandra Dawkins, Secretary; and Clyde Timmons, Treasurer.

Flora Student Council Is The Leader

Steve Savitz, President of the South Carolina Association of Student Councils, looks over the clothing collected for a welfare project with Student Council sponsors Mrs. C. D. Plyler, Miss Myrna Page, Mr. Jerry Redman, Miss Ann B. Booth, and Mr. Joel Abraham.

Officers of Student Council for Second semester: John Freeman, President; Clyde Timmons, Vice-President; Abby McMurray, Secretary; and Bud Cousar, Treasurer.

In South Carolina Councils

Second semester Student Council members: First Row: John Freeman, President; Clyde Timmons, Vice-President; Abby McMurray, Secretary; and Bud Cousar, Treasurer. Second Row: Angela Bultman, Ellen Seastrunk, Cynthia Zuk, Andy Fisch, Linda Dorsey, Bea Johnson, Joyce Hedgecock, and Sandra Dawkins. Third Row: Reed Barnes, Iris Pellington, Dale Nettles, Kathy Whittington, Joanne Nye, Mary Jo Shedd, Connie Davis, and Roxy Shellenberger. Fourth Row: Doug King, Temple Ligon, Kent Whittemore, Tommy Linton, Joe Patterson, Gerald Bridgers, Don Tomlin, Randy Barre, Bill Reese, and Claude Belk. Fifth Row: John Law, Dickie Tighe, Edward Wise, Pope Lawson, Lee Taylor, Mac Rine, and Jerry Shealy.

The Spirit Committee promotes the spirit of the school for the athletic seasons. Decorating the gym are members (sitting) Mary Jones, Steve Savitz, Bob Day, Mark Archer, Abby McMurray, Ben Miller; (standing) Mary Giles, Chairman; Tomi Dee Gray, Mike McCravy, Sue MacMillan, Sherry Gomez, Vickie Eslinger, Dickie Sturkie, Ronnie Smith, Susan King, and Bill Warlick.

The Exchange Assembly Committee plans and directs the programs put on by Flora students at other local schools. This year's committee members are: Seated: Nancy McMeen, Ellen DaVega and Bobby Robinson, Co-Chairmen, and Abby McMurray. Standing: Caci Cole, Ginny Lentz, Mary Jones, Don Bushman, Bea Johnson, Tomi Dee Gray, Mark Sloan, Sue MacMillan, and Steve Cremer.

Importance Of Council Committees Increases

Student Council, through the efforts of its different committees, has rendered many services to A. C. Flora and her student body. The committees of Student Council are Welfare, Social, Constitution, Special Projects and Problems, Assembly, House and Grounds, and Finance.

The dances after football and basketball games, the mixers during Activities Period, the Thanksgiving Assembly, the clothes drives for the needy, the decoration of the Student Council room, the improvement of the school's general appearance, the exchange assemblies from other schools and the revision of the Constitution were the results of the work done by Student Council committees.

Student Council committee chairmen for first semester, Honey Kropp, Bea Johnson, Judy Banks, Raven McCrory, and Ricky Patterson, examine the masks given to the Columbia hospitals for Halloween. Absent when picture was taken: Sam Jeter.

Plans are made for second semester projects by Student Council committee chairmen Bea Johnson, Ellen Seastrunk, Sandra Dawkins, Reed Barnes, Mark Archer, Edward Wise, and Joe Patterson.

Steve Cremer, International Day Chairman, begins the day's activities by raising the International Day flag.

Individual committee chairmen Charlie Jordan, Marshall Lipscomb, Tomi Dee Gray, Mac Macmurphy, Nancy McMeen, Ellen DaVega, and Steve Cremer prepare to receive visitors in the Student Council reception room.

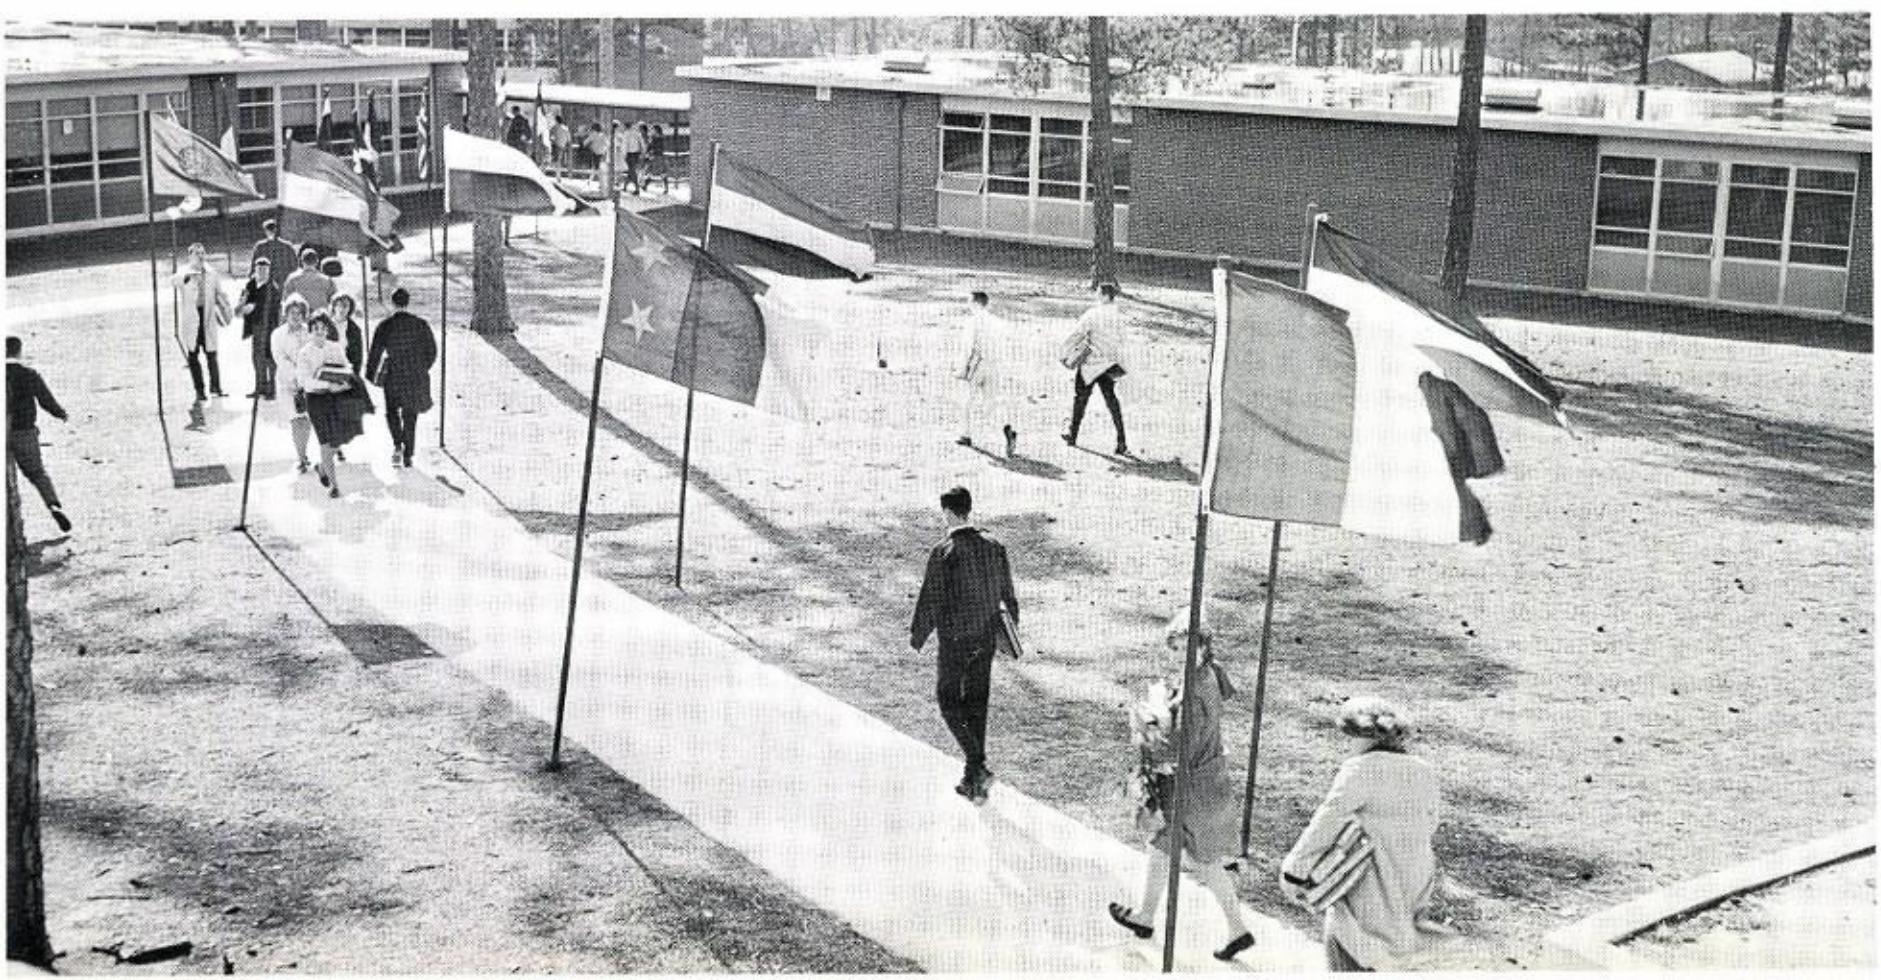
A main attraction of International Day is the homerooms decorated to represent foreign nations. This presentation is typical of the homerooms each year.

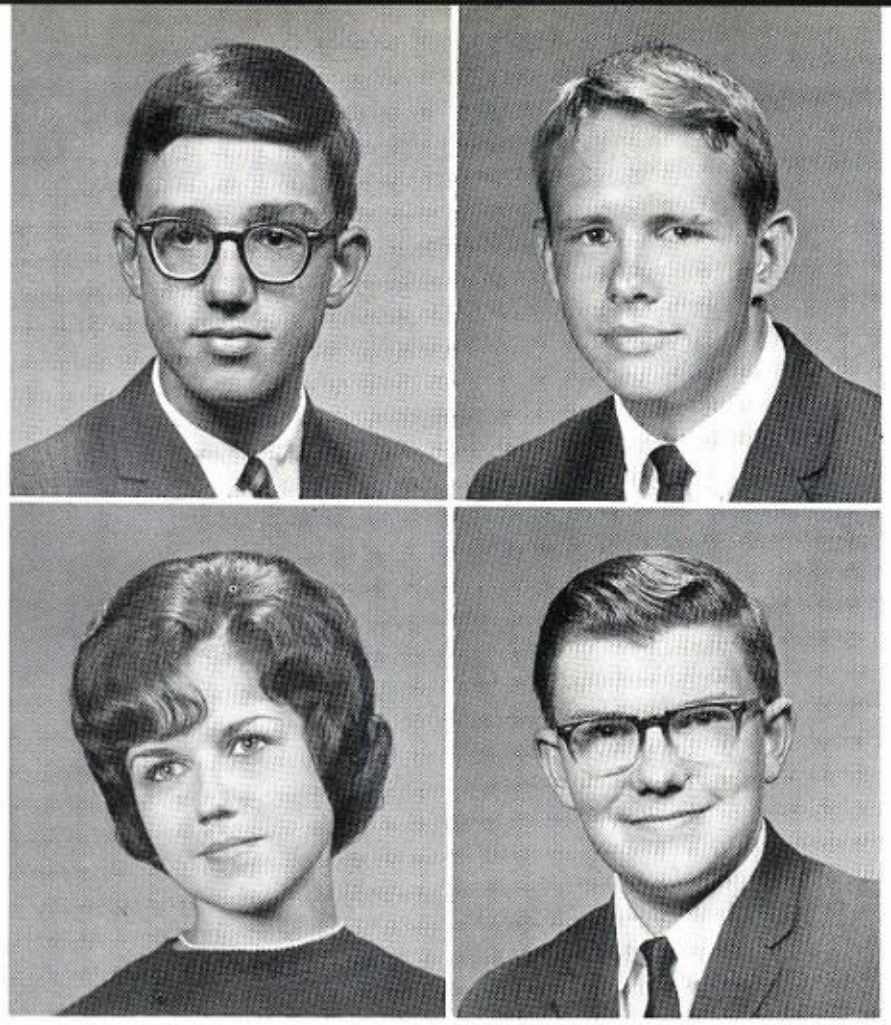
The Leaning Tower of Pisa, a Chinese pagoda, the Eiffel Tower, the Great Sphinx—all of these "wonders of the world" greeted students and visitors on May 1, International Day. The avenue of flags, assembly parade, travel lectures, native dances—all of these were significant parts of the day's program.

After working for a year on a dream, International Day became a reality. Education, international friendship, understanding, and peace culminated in that one day that became a special day in Flora's history—International Day of 1964—A TIME WORTH REMEMBERING.

"Wonders Of The World" At International Day

The avenue of flags embodies the true meaning which is the basis for International Day—the linking of all nations in a common bond of peace and friendship.





Officers for National Honor Society for the first semester were Clint McCrory, President; John Freeman, Vice-President; Sandra Dawkins, Secretary; and Mac Coble, Treasurer.

Second semester National Honor Society officers were Jim Childress, President; Mark Sloan, Vice-President; Margaret Seay, Secretary; and Reed Barnes, Treasurer.

Honor Society's Vocational Guidance Program

The National Honor Society surged forward this year in two vital ways—in membership and in activities. In September fifty new members were inducted and, with the ten members initiated in January, the total number came to one hundred, the largest ever. This group decided on two long-range goals; first, the expansion of the Vocational Guidance Programs and second, the ambitious installation of an Honor Code.

Mrs. E. R. Short and Mrs. J. C. Baker, sponsors; welcomes Thérèse Touissaint, honorary member, and other inductees Andy Suber, Leslie Lawrence, Bill Todd, Jenny Thurmond, Dale Distin, Jack Heath, and Sandra Brown, into Honor Society. Absent when picture was made were Truman Hopkins and Judy Sandler.

Is Expanded

The Honor Code, when established, will be a school moral foundation for which many schools strive. The vocational guidance programs give the students of Flora unlimited opportunities to hear professional men and women discuss their work and its potential. With the success of these programs, Flora is certain to deserve her place as a leader of schools.

Tutoring is one of the Honor Society's services. Judy Banks tutors a student in history.

The Honor Code Committee: Sandra Dawkins, Lynnie Olive, Luana Floyd, John Freeman, Marshall Lipscomb, and Don Bushman work on an honor code system for Flora. Absent from Picture: Mac Coble, Betsy Daniel, Mark Archer, and Doug King.

Bobby Salane and Randy Barre explain this year's Vocational Guidance Program to members of the committee.

The Falcon Family

Mark Coplan, Editor-in-Chief, dreams of the day when the annual has long gone to press.

Catherine Hammond, Business Manager, checks to see that all ads for the annual are in.

For the most important group at Flora (or at least that's what our editor says!), only two pages have been allotted. On these two pages we have tried to picture each hard-working, diligent member of the FALCON family in his usual habitat.

The Activities Staff, Mary Lovvorn, Margaret Seay, Sandra Dawkins, and Becki Bowers, head for their next picture appointment.

Don Bushman, Assistant Editor, shows Mrs. O. A. Jeffcoat, Sponsor, and Mary Giles, Faculty Editor, the Dreher devil hung in effigy.

Marshall Lipscomb, Beauty Editor, attempts to move the huge backdrop for the beauty contest as the other members of the staff, Betty Goddard, Joyce Hedgecock, Lilly Stern, and Ruth McKinney, help her. Absent when picture was made: Ellen DaVega.

"At Home"

Trite though it may be, our motto, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again," is no longer uttered by the members of our staff. As you turn these pages, we hope you will agree that this final effort has succeeded.

The Winged

Falcons' Opinions Are Aired

In its fifth year of publication, the Winged Press, Flora's student newspaper, continues to keep Flora students informed on campus activities. This year the Winged Press, a biweekly newspaper, was expanded to six pages with a production staff of over forty students. In an effort to make the paper more self-supporting, members of the staff for 1963-'64 solicited paid advertisements, a "first" in the newspaper's history.

Many new features and departments were added this year to entertain and inform the students. A "Letters to the Editor" column gave the students themselves an opportunity to voice their opinions. The editorial section was enlarged, new feature columns were added, and more pictures than ever before were printed in order to make this year's Winged Press the very best one yet!

Members of the Winged Press staff, Jack Heath and Shirley Price, distribute the papers to subscribers' lockers.

In "Letters To The Editors"

Writers for the Winged Press often interview students for campus profiles and opinionaires. Linda Hair is shown interviewing an outstanding senior for the campus profiles which is a capsule commentary on the students past, present, and future.

Editors for second semester rush to meet the deadline for a Winged Press edition. They are: Mr. C. G. DuBose, Sponsor; Cynthia Holl and Beth Vogel, Co-Editors; Ernest Schicle, Circulation Editor; Linda Hair, Make-Up Editor; Mary Jones, Exchange Editor; Julie Winn, Head Typist; Reed Barnes, News Editor; Jack Heath, Sports Editor; Janis Bale, Copy Editor; Claude Belk, Sports Editor; and Caci Cole, Girls' Sports Editor. Absent when picture was made: Dave Stewart, Feature Editor; and Nancylee Rast, Assistant Feature Editor.

The press room is always an example of diligent workers such as Don Bushman, Reed Barnes, Treci Aston, Linda Gregory, Janice Bowers, Jackie Schuster, Kitty McCaskill, Janis Bale, Naomi Abrams, Pat Edwards, Bill Warlick, Susan Reese, Bud Cousar, Clyde Timmons, Ricky Durlach, and Nard Fleishman as they all do the jobs appointed to them.

Officers of the Key Club, Mark Coplan, Vice-President; Mac Macmurphy, President; Bob Neely, Secretary, and Keith Belser, Treasurer, sell light bulbs in order to raise money for many of their service projects. Helping the club by a purchase is Mrs. F. D. Roberts.

Helping the Goodfellows pack and distribute food baskets at Christmas time is one of the Key Club's many service projects. Seen doing this are: Ben Miller, Colie Dyson, Claude Belk, Sandy Daniel, and Edgar Morris.

Key And Anchor

Flora's lights often turn on at night when the Key Club is at work behind the scenes to help its school and community function smoothly. With a cross-section of Flora boys as its members, the Key Club is an excellent representation of our school, and is responsive to all who wish its services.

This energetic service organization has the responsibility of ushering at assembly, of raising and lowering the flag every day, and of performing various other worthwhile duties around the school. In addition, they sell light bulbs, and they aid the Goodfellows in their annual Christmas food basket distribution. Besides being proud of the local services rendered by these boys, Flora students take pride in our Key Club's being an active participant in the nationwide Key Club program, and in Phil Leventis' being treasurer of the Carolinas' District.

Members of the Key Club consistently work to keep our school grounds clean and in good repair. In this picture some of the boys are restoring cleanliness to the parking lot. They are Colie Dyson, Steve Cremer, Bob Neely, Sandy Daniel, Carl Ellsworth, Keith Belser, John Freeman, Dave Merry, Pope Lawson, Nard Fleishman, Chip Burnett, Mark Coplan, Jack Heath, Bill Johnson, Clyde Timmons, Bud Cousar, Johnny Parker, and Edgar Morris. Absent from picture: Bobby Robinson, Claude Belk, Phil Leventis, Mac Macmurphy, Clint McCrory, Phil McClary, Sam Jeter, Steve Savitz, Mac Coble, Ben Miller, Charlie Jordan, and Mr. William Carson, Sponsor.

Anchor Club officers conduct an all-girl meeting on cleaning up our school. They are: Reed Barnes, Senior Director; Betsy Daniels, Junior Director; Nancy McMeen, President; Ellen Seastrunk, Vice-President; Ellen DaVega, Secretary, and Marshall Lipscomb, Treasurer.

For a major project of the year, Anchor Club dressed dolls for the Salvation Army to distribute at Christmas. Helping to pack these dolls are Betsy Cave, Ginny Lentz, Sandra Brown, Cheryl Dorsey, and Mary Bistline.

Anchor Club

Clubs Work Toward Goal

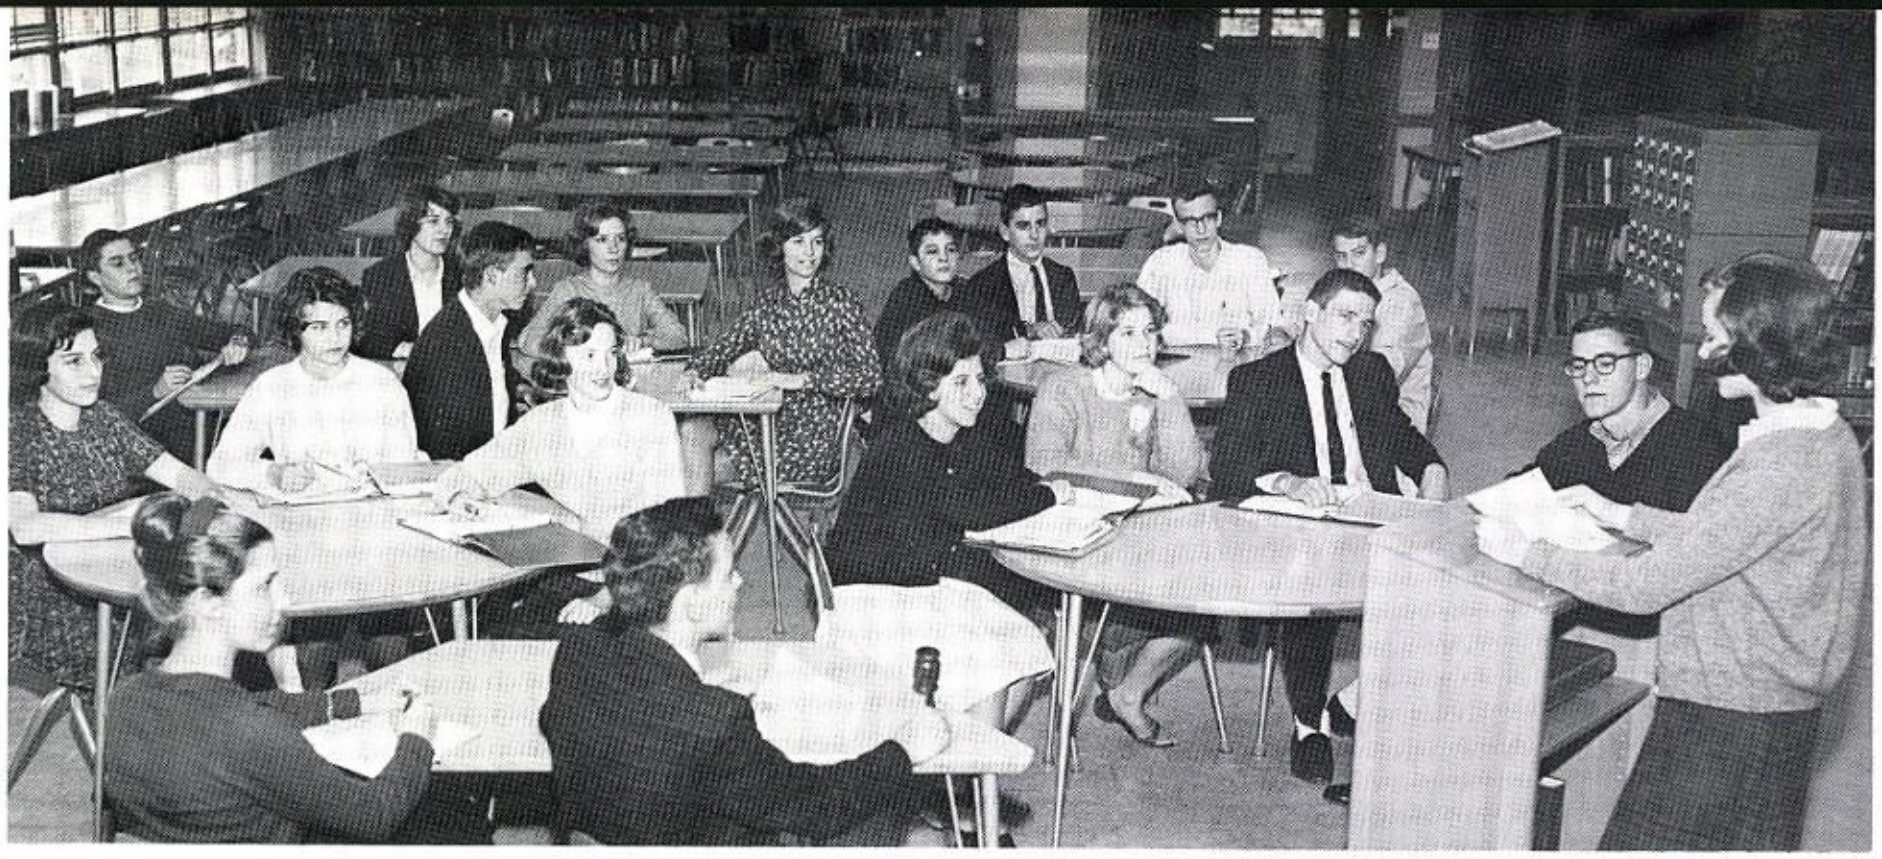
Contributions of the Anchor Club this year have been those in which the members could give service to the school and the community. These loyal Falcons show true spirit and enthusiasm by periodically cleaning the school grounds.

As several girls who still possess aching backs will testify, the bonfire at Homecoming was through the courtesy of the Anchor Club.

Helpfulness in civic affairs was another field in which Anchor Club participated. Among the numerous projects undertaken were ushering at public affairs, assisting with the various fund drives for the March of Dimes and American Legion Auxiliary, and dressing dolls for the Salvation Army at Christmas.

In contrast to this serious side is the fun-filled nature of the club. Anchor Antics, a variety show written and staged by the club members, was presented in the spring. This grand finale ended a very successful year.

Anchor Club members work continuously to keep the school grounds in good appearance. Here the members clean up before Homecoming. They are: Mrs. W. D. Gray and Mrs. M. G. Jordan, Sponsors; Sandra Dawkins, Barbara Roberts, Tomi Dee Gray, Irene Knox, Susan King, Betsy Cave, Mary Bistline, Reed Barnes, Linda Denny, Honey Kropp, Ellen Seastrunk, Sue MacMillan, Betsy Daniels, Dianne Meadows, Pat McLaughlin, Marshall Lipscomb, B'Anne Barnes; (kneeling in front)), Charlotte Knox, Thérèse Toussaint, Caci Cole, Ann Arnold, Ellen DaVega, Mary Weston, and Marie Mitchell.



NFL members who have obtained their Degree of Merit participate in a mock congress. They are: First Row: Miss Gheesling, Sponsor; Lauren Brubaker, Patty Jenkins. Second Row: Julia Henderson, Scharlene Nash; Kitty McCaskill, Lilli Stern, Judy Fischman, Steve Curry, and Truman Hopkins. Third Row: Billy Stubbs, Amy Henderson, Edward Wise, Carolyn Abernathy, Martenza Jones, Clyde Timmons, Doug Yates, Bill Kauric, and Philip Bushman. Absent when picture was taken were: Bob Bowles, Bonnie Solomon, Lynnie Olive, Lynn Whitehouse, Lynda Fetterley, Mary Jones, Margaret Seay, Kenneth Shull, Lee McAden, Gaylin West, Judith Fischman, Janis Dickman, Malcolm Johnson, Charlie Terry, Theresa Mattox, John Torri, and Charlotte Knox.

N. F. L. Triumphs At Emory's Barkley Forum

Officers of the National Forensic League plan the Christmas Banquet. They are: Carrington Salley, Social Chairman; Mark Archer, Social Chairman; Tommy Salane, Publicity Chairman; Naomi Abrams, Historian; Luana Floyd, Secretary; Mary Giles, Vice-President; and Mac Coble, President.

Once again the N.F.L. has worked outstandingly for the entire year. Flora is honored to have had the leading chapter in South Carolina—for ever since its beginning the Flora chapter has always attended the National Tournament.

The following honors have been won by the Flora chapter of the National Forensic League 1963-1964: Stephen Savitz, a gavel for the best presiding officer in the Senate at the Asheville Congress; Mac Coble, a gavel for the best presiding officer in the House at the Dentsville Congress; Truman Hopkins, a silver medal for superior speaker in the House at the High Point District Congress; Mary Giles and Mac Coble, a trophy for the best affirmative team at Emory University, NFL debaters, Steve Savitz, Luana Floyd, Mary Giles, Mac Coble, Bobby Salane, Mark Archer, and Tommy Salane, practice debating against one another to prepare for the debate tournaments in which they participate.

Departing for a speech tournament are the NFL members who have obtained their Degree of Honor. They are: Dickie Sturkie, Sandra Dawkins, Kay Smith, Bill Todd, Allen Jeffcoat, Judy Hawkins, Carrington Salley, Mr. Preston Musgrove, Sponsor; Jeff Abrams, and Linda Denny. George Graab, Ginger Hill, Jayne Glass, and Stephen Levkoff were absent when the picture was made.

first place, and best affirmative team in the South Carolina Debate Contest—enabling them to attend the National Speech Tournament at Akron, Ohio in June; Mary Giles, second best speaker at Emory and first place speaker in South Carolina; Bobby and Tommy Salane, first place negative in the South Carolina Debate Contest and tied for second place speaker.

In the State Speech Contests, superior ratings were won by Patty Jenkins in dramatics, Luana Floyd in extemporary, and Stephen Savitz in declamation.

Mrs. M. G. Lupold, the Flora Debate Coach, was acknowledged as a superior coach and was given a gold key symbolizing her achievement.

Mark Archer, Tommy Salane, Mrs. R. C. Gilbert, Sponsor; Luana Floyd, Naomi Abrams, Bill Rosvold, Bobby Salane, and Ricky Patterson look at the scrapbooks of Flora's Forensic League activities. All have obtained the Degree of Excellence in NFL work.

Three members of the NFL hold the Degree of Distinction. These three, Steve Savitz, Mary Giles, and Mac Coble, with Mrs. M. G. Lupold, Sponsor, add the trophies they won to the others won in previous years.

Mr. Brasington instructs the JETS Club's members. First Row: Margaret Seay, Rhett Tindall, Billy Bridgers, Mike Byorick, Mr. Brasington. Second Row: Cheryl Hartley, Clint McCrory, Mac Coble, Bill Pitts, Kenneth Shull, Chris Nuckols. Third Row: Tom Brock, Cheryl Parsons, Therese Toussaint, Keith Belser, Randy Barre, David Detwiler. Fourth Row: Susan King, Amy Henderson, Reed Barnes, Jack Heath, Vincent Holloman. Fifth Row: Gene Simpson, Jeff Abrams, Honey Kropp, Larry Mauldin, George Little. Sixth Row: Bill Crown, Sam Jeter, Cheryl McCoy, Abby McMurray, Ginger Hill. Seventh Row: Ricky Durlach, Phil Law, Peggy DeHamer, Judy Fischman. Absent when Picture was Made: Ron Barrett, Don Bushman, Jincy Davis, Judy Hawkins, Cynthia Holl, Nancy Jervey, Mary Jones, Doug King, Jamie Stone, Bill McWilliams, Theresa Mattox.

Jets Members Institute J. K. Blum Observatory

The Junior Engineering Technical Society, composed of fifty selected students, sponsors various projects, programs, and field trips throughout the year to promote interest in the fields of science and mathematics. Many such activities are financed by the proceeds from the Ice Cream Snack Bar which JETS members operate during lunch periods. During the school year 1963-64, the club's most important contribution to the school has been the planning and building of the school observatory which houses the 12½-inch telescope constructed by the Telescope committee.

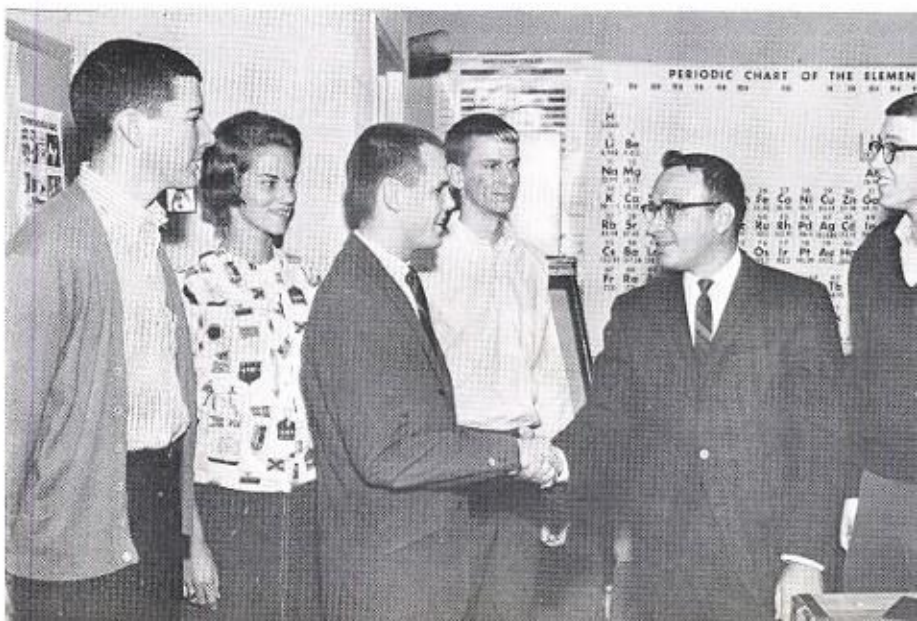
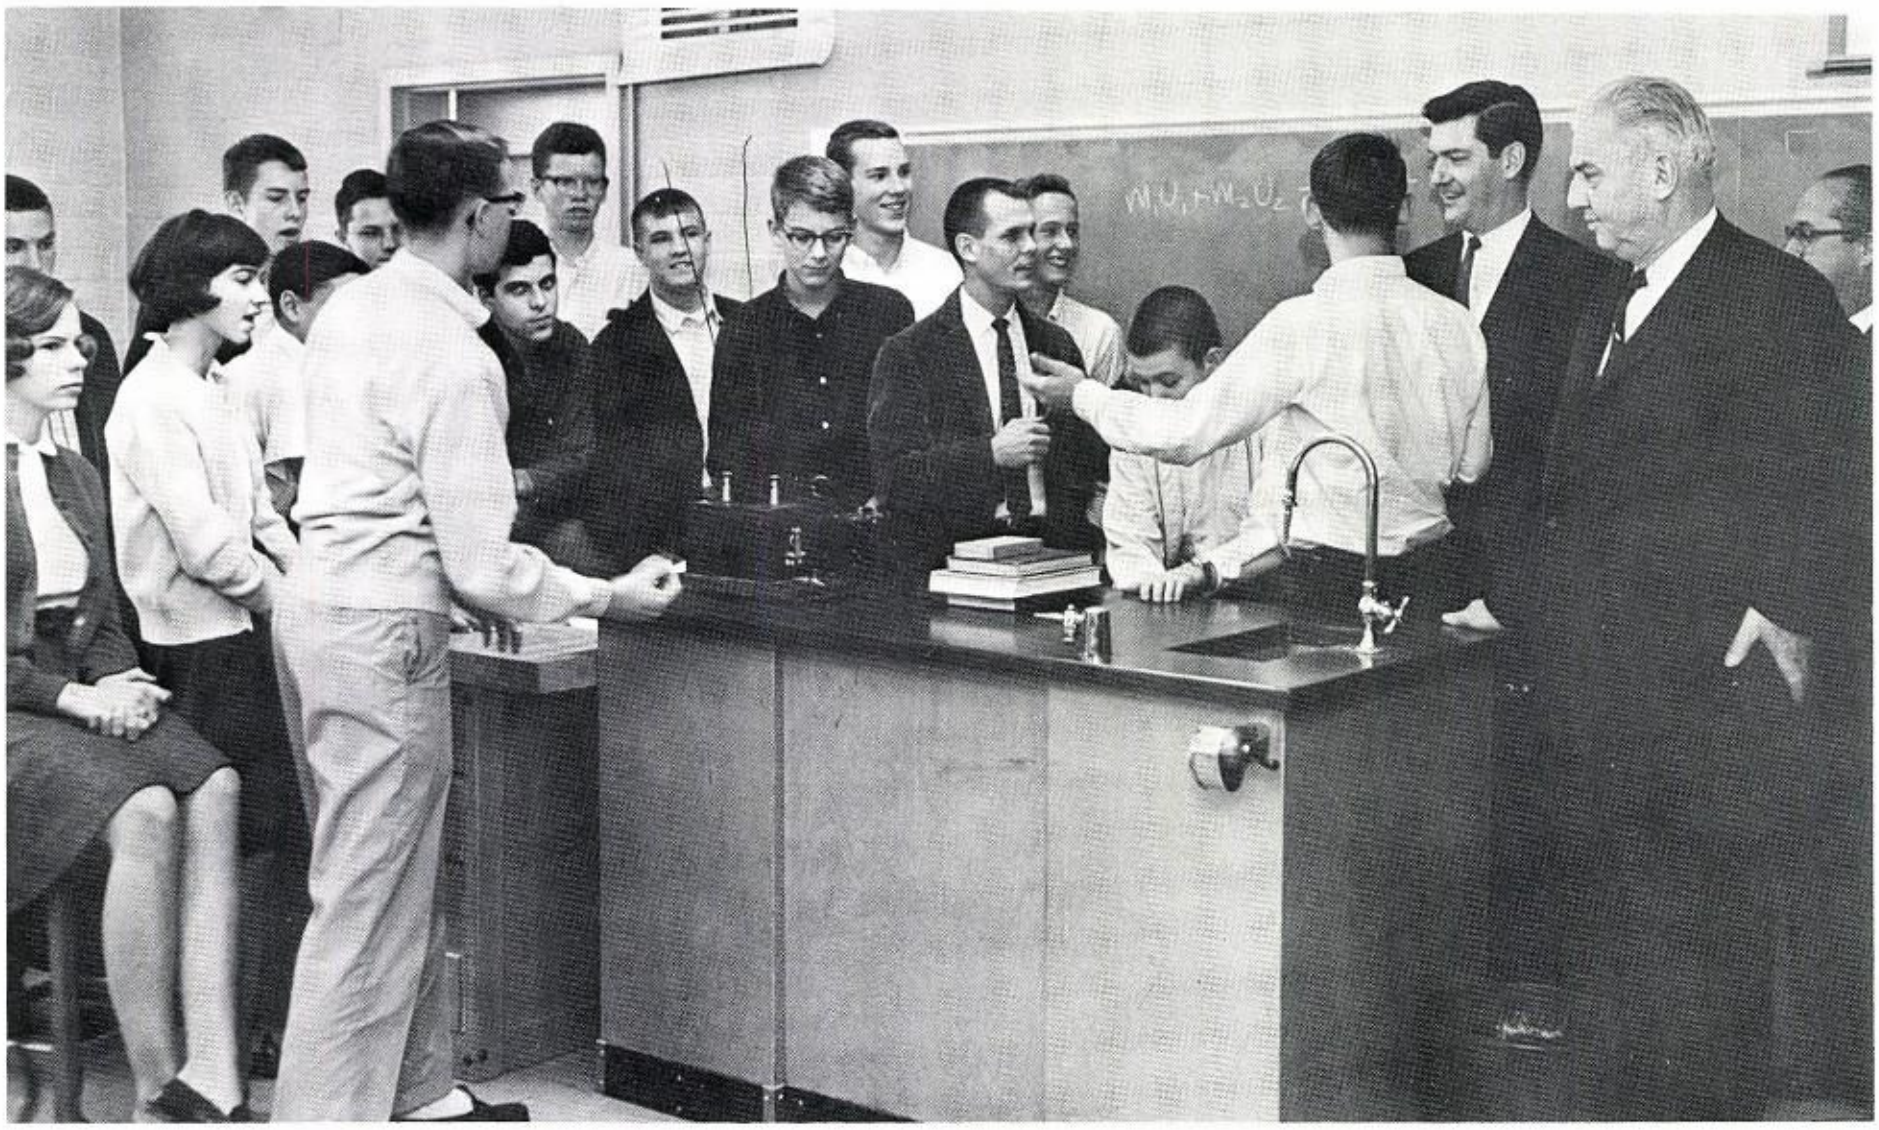
Doug King, Vice-President; Margaret Seay, Secretary; Mr. Brasington, Sponsor; Mike Byorick, Treasurer; and Clint McCrory, President; greet Dr. Layton, Head of the Chemistry Department at the University of South Carolina.





Mr. Blum and Mr. Williams of Columbia University, guest speaker, join in an experiment with the members and sponsors of the Scientific Club of America. They are: Caroline Jordan, Laird McMurray, Lee McAden, Steven Gardner, Harvey Helman, Bill Wall, Bob Schuster, John Tilley, Allen Jeffcoat, Don Tomlin, Philip Bushman, Dana Mitchell, Mr. Brasington, Sponsor; J. R. Fussell, Joe Walters, Bill Benson, Mr. Williams, Mr. Blum, and Mr. Stokes, Sponsor.

Flora Students Excel In Scientific Achievements

Cynthia Holl won a trip to Washington, D. C., to present her research paper, "The Laboratory Induction of Vesical Calculi in the Mus Norvegicus Albinus," to a youth science congress. Seen here with Cynthia in Washington is Mrs. Tweed, who accompanied her.

Ricky Durlach shows his project on "Hydrofoils" at a national science exhibition in Albuquerque, New Mexico. For this project he won a trip aboard a Naval submarine.

Sam Jeter was selected as a representative to "Youth Conference on the Atom." Shown with Sam as he leaves for Chicago are Mr. Lowman, representative from the power company which sponsored the trip, and Mr. Brasington, who attended the conference with Sam.

F. H. A. Members Give As They Learn

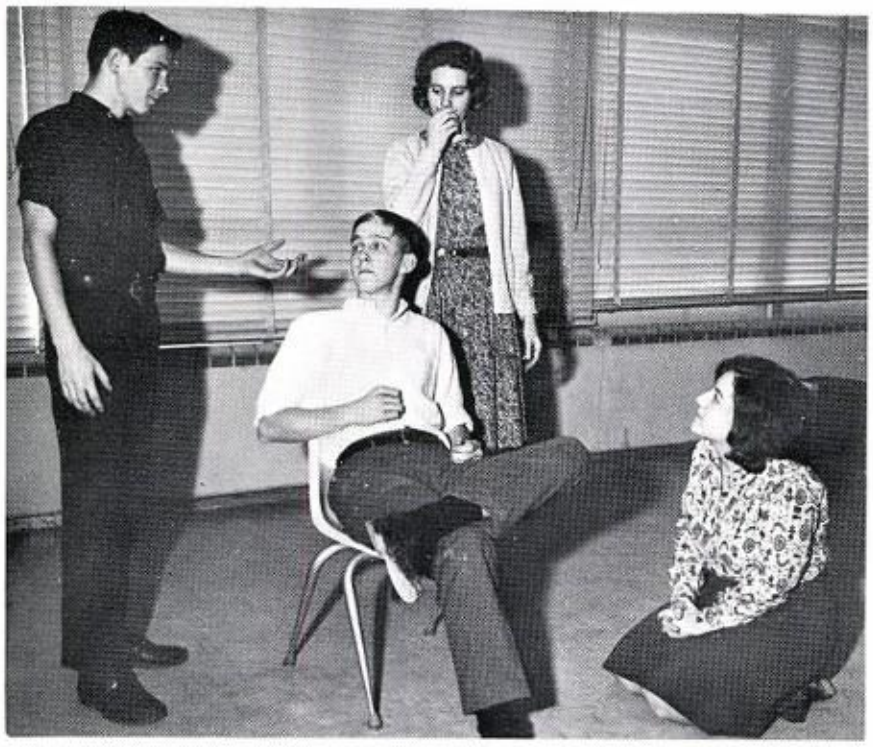
Ann McLain, President; shows Dianne Sturkie, Treasurer; the cook books sold by F.H.A. for the "Brazil Project" while Colette Davis, Secretary; and Patty Rish, Vice-President; look over recipes for exciting new dishes.

Jerva Watson and Pat Denny, "Sew With Wool" contestants, model their lovely creations to other contestants Linda Denny, Sara Richardson, Jackie Khars, and Pat Mansfield. Absent when picture was made were: Jane Hicks, Julie Hudson, Nancy Gardner, and Brucie Smith.

The F.H.A. of Flora is a widespread organization working both for charity and for the betterment of their own skills. They started the "Brazil Project" which has been adopted by other schools throughout the state during the past year. This spring, by raising funds in various ways, this group sent a sizable check along with clothes, food, and toys for needy families.

Girls who are members of the Future Homemakers of America learn to be excellent seamstresses, cooks, and hostesses. Flora's F.H.A. has been well represented in many large contests, such as the "Sew With Wool" competition. Through their experiences, these talented young ladies will be among the finest of the homemakers of tomorrow.

F.H.A. members Sybil Grant, Linda Rodgers, Frances Galgano, Barbara Winneman, Fran Rivetta, Brenda Misenheimer, Nancy Bartos, Dianne Kirby, Jan Hagen, Jeanette Leaphart, Marie Oden, A'Dell Lott, Margie Wise, Dianne Strohecker, and Pam Osteen busily work around the Home Ec. kitchen testing recipes found in their cookbook.



In a Drama Club's meeting, Chip Griffin wins his point against Mike McCravy as Louise Bailey is taken aghast—Susan Reese meditates through it all.

"Beth, I think my contacts have slipped," cries Robin Starin blindly as Beth Vogel applies a grease stick.

Masquers Have A Ball Producing Comedy

Miss Mary Garvin and Mr. Gerald Floyd, sponsors of the Scarlet Masquers, aid the future "stars" in projecting themselves to their audiences.

The Scarlet Masquers, the dramatics organization at Flora, consists of approximately 80 students—divided into two groups—half meeting on either Wednesday or Thursday at activities period. The officers of each group plan and present a weekly program to the club members—ranging from pantomimes to actual dramatizations on phases of the theatre. The sponsors, Miss Mary Garvin and Mr. Gerald Floyd, encourage student participation in the programs. Representatives from the Town Theatre, as well as local actors and actresses, were among the guest speakers at club meetings.

The major project for the year was a three-act comedy by Moss Hart and George Kaufman, "The Man Who Came to Dinner." By working on this play, the students gained experience in acting, building sets, doing make-up, collecting properties, as well as many other facets of the theatre.

In a "light" sequence from "The Man Who Came to Dinner," Danny Seibert prepares to drop Vickie Eslinger as Donald Devet and Tom Garrick try to catch her.

"You fresh thing!" exclaims Patty Jenkins as Chip Griffin winces. Edgar Morris, Judy Corbett and Don Tew are amused by it all.

Falcon Band Adds That "Extra

Mr. Cecil W. Johnston, Director, explains the "Marching F" formation to the band officers: Bobby Dill, Second Lieutenant; Larry Burchardt, First Lieutenant; Winnie Beach, Head Twirler; and Gil Few, Captain.

The Falcon Band of A. C. Flora High School is divided into four separate units: the Marching Band, the Concert Band, the Falconaires, and the Twirling Falconettes. The Marching Band performs at all home football games, other athletic events, and parades. The Concert Band presents annually a "Winter Pops" Concert, a formal Spring Concert, and the Flora Band Festival. Although the Falconaires have been in existence only one year, they have already performed at many dances and assemblies throughout the state. Each member of the Twirling Falconettes also plays an instrument in the Concert Band.

Under the direction of Mr. Cecil Johnston, our band consistently gives superb performances. The spirit of the Student Body rises tremendously when the band is present at pep rallies, assemblies, and football games. This year something new has been added—a basketball pep band. Without it the spirit of many a Flora fan would have been dampened.

Touch" To All Football Games

Mrs. Mattox, director of the Falconettes, always has time to show our "twirling" Falcons—Susan Ahearn, Louanne Lyles, Betsy Peele, Winnie Beach, Linda Shull, Pam Osteen, and Marilyn Roth a new routine.

The Girls' Sextet, composed of Peggi Kerlin, Carol Keller, Joanne Calhoun, Judy Banks, and Lynnie Olive; selects an appropriate number to perform. Absent when picture was made: Luana Floyd.

The five All-State Chorus members from Flora practice together. They are: Bobby Andrews, Neal Martin, Peggi Kerlin, Wayne Nidiffer, and Lynnie Olive.

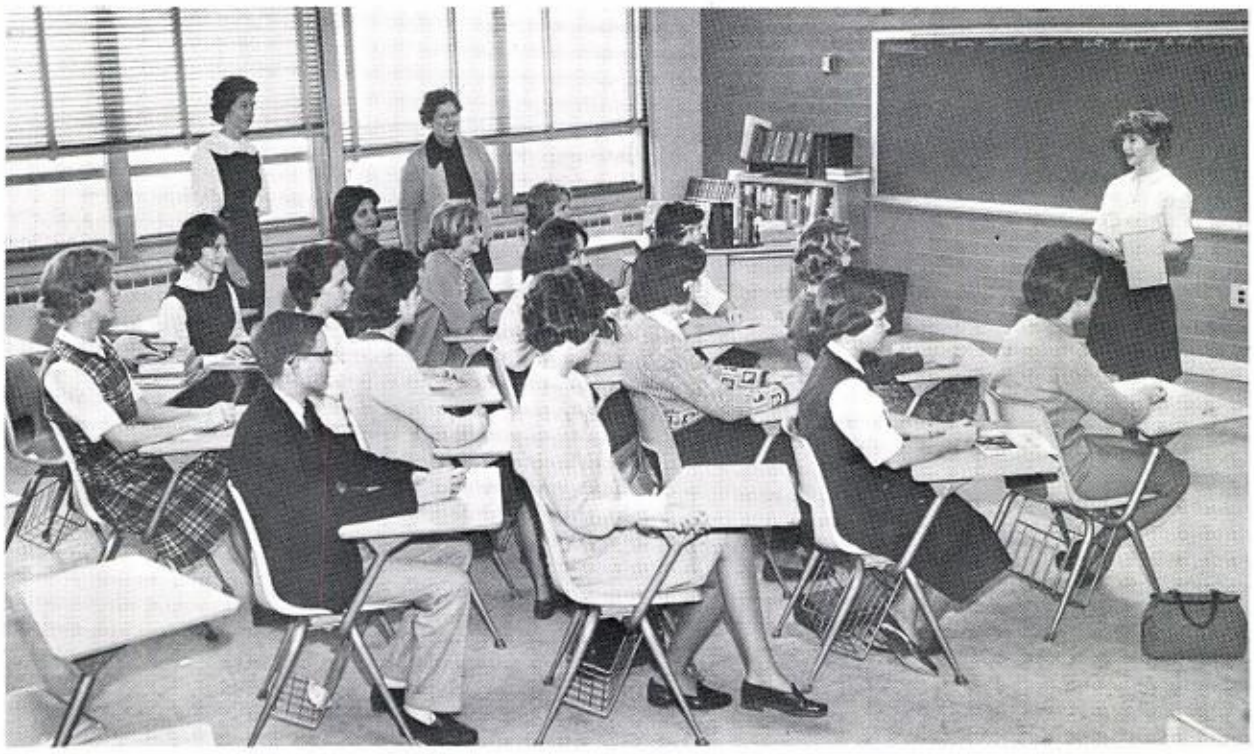
Chorus Entertains Falcons With Folk Singing

The chorus members participate in a hootenanny. The members are: First Row: Martha Jo Heider, Suzette Neely, Patty Wall, Linda Smith, Susan Winders, Cindy Marks, Missy Roper, Harriet Torri, Lynnie Olive, Connie Aldrich, Wayne Nidiffer, Peggi Kerlin, Jim Turner, Luana Floyd, Neal Martin. Second Row: Alecia Sample, Becky Wilson, Nancy Williams, Jeannine McCrary, Diane Bates, Joanne Calhoun, Sandra Moat, Martha Jones, Jane Green, Bobbie Piece, Gayle Johns, Rosanne Rivkin, Dianne Stokes, Patty Foley. Third Row: Bob Davis, Sandy Mickle, Tommy Brantley, Jimmy Halford, Jimmy Terry, Donnie Hatchell, Bobby Andrews, Julie Nettles, Jimmy McConnell, Judy Banks, Joyce Brown, Mary Jones, and Mrs. Evans, Director.

The staff of the Falcon's Quill plan for the 1964 issue. They are Kay Smith, Kathleen Jeter, Pat Thomas, Nelda Tuttle, Mrs. C. G. DuBose, Sponsor; Susan Klink, Brenda Bowers, Susan Dale Patterson, Becky McConnell, Janis Bowers, Judy Corbett, Reed Barnes, Roxy Shellenberger, Kitty McKaskill, Judy Sandler, and Anne Reese. Absent when picture was made: Beth Vogel, Dave Stewart, and Treci Aston.

The Falcon's Quill is published in the spring of each year; in it are found the best writings of the Flora students.

Clubs Stress Occupational Goals



The Future Teachers of America explore the teaching field, including the opportunities and the many areas of the teaching profession. Caci Cole, president, explains the program to fellow members: Becky McConnell, Carol Ann Tilton, Linda Hall, Gene Drake, Charlotte Knox, Candy Lawson, Linda Gregory, Louise Bailey, Tracy Richardson, Linda Eargle, Donna Muir, Ann Marett, Pat Harper, Linda Fetterly, and Sandra Brown, while Mrs. Mildred M. Causey and Miss Beverly A. Sanders, sponsors, look on. Absent when picture was made were Anita Andrews, Reed Barnes, Anne Farmer, Luana Floyd, Jane Garrick, Mary Giles, Elizabeth Glenn, Nancy Wells, Cynthia Holl, Connie Hudson, Shirley Olson, and Sharon Shipp.

One of the projects of the Future Business Leaders of America is the production of the student directories. Members working toward this are Mrs. James M. Wills, Sponsor; Barbara Jordan, Steve Bluestein, Bobby Lawrence, Donnie Burros, Ann Oden, Franny Revetta, Don Tew, Jane Scarborough, Connie Bone, Jerva Watson, Susan Quick, Carol Glisson, Barbara Winniman, Kay Hughes, Mary Satterfield, Stanley Robinson, Brenda Misenheimer, Linda Wall, Billy Jean Brown, Deanie Barber, Mary Kate Jones, and Mrs. M. G. Jordan, Sponsor.

Social Cabinet, Art Council Accentuate Flora

Fire posters, one of Art Council's many beneficial activities are being displayed by Billy Meetze, Betty Banks, Burt Moore, Frank Fusco, Alice Marshall, Deanie Barber, Miss Montgomery, Sponsor; Ruthie Turner, June Speed, Thomas Evans, Dianne Stokes, Catherine Hammond, and Bill Kauric.

Mrs. Bright and her library assistants—Betty Christian, Judy Hawkins, Larry Griner, Pat Kauric, Chuck McCurry, Dianne Bates, Mary Pat Bailey, Linda Ressler, Donna Danley, Jackie Schuster, Susan Dale Patterson, Mary Turner, Tommy Ward, Sybil Grant, Pamela Jarriel, Linda Gregory, and Louise Bailey always work efficiently to keep magazines and books in very neat order.

Library Assistants, Representatives Aid Students And The Library

Our library representatives, sponsored by Miss Jones, keep us informed of all our "debts" to the library. The representatives helping Miss Jones with overdue slips are Sybil Grant, Kay Jones, Shirley Price, Grace Bennet, Luana Floyd, George Grabb, Barry Moore, Bobby Hart, Jerry Burns, Bobby Merritt, Donnie Kinsey, Chip Burnett, Dan McLeod, Tommy Ward, Harvey Helman, Jimmie Davis, Billy Biggs, John Face, Rodney Kinsey, Hoppy Hanson, Pete Mixson, Andrea Bogen, Donald Devet, Betty Bishop, Julie Nettles, Kitty McCaskill, Catherine Hammond, Dolly Magrath, Betty Love, and Linda Gregory.

Flora Services Are

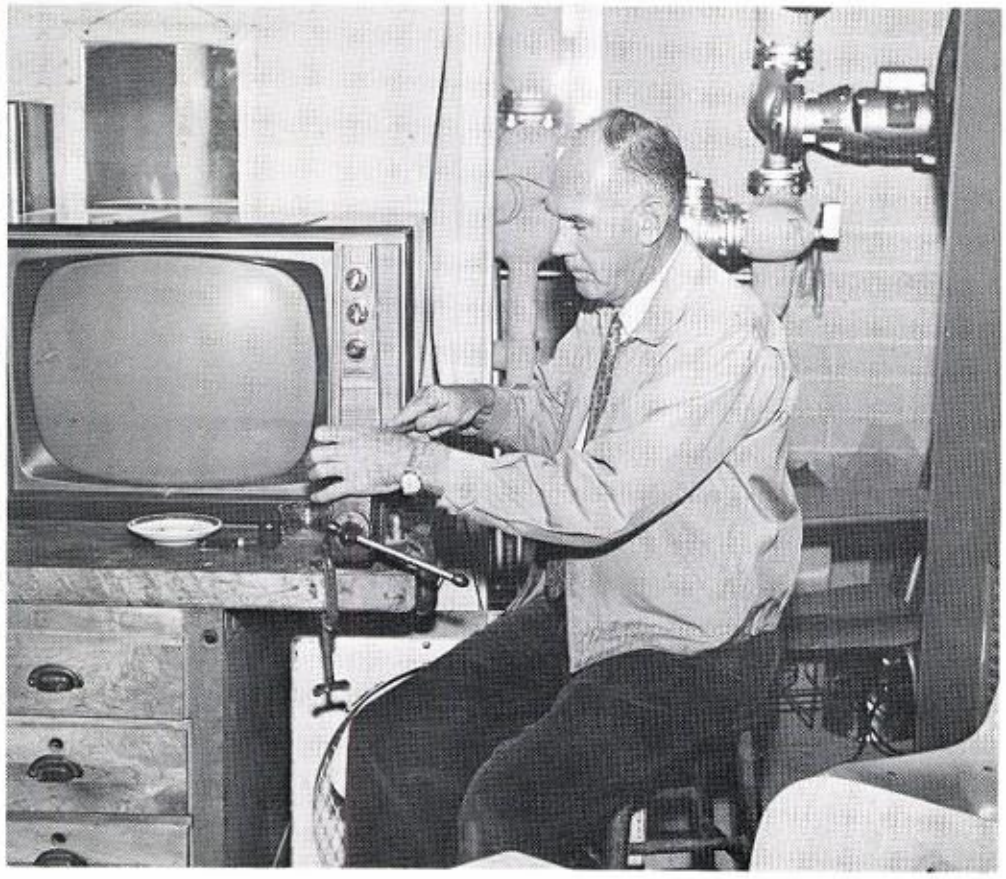
Our Main Office assistants Ronald DeHart, Carol Dixey, Ronnie Asbill, Robin Starin, Annette Byrd, Nancy Lee Rast, Treci Aston, Jan Caskey, Ginger Hill, J. R. Fussell, Carol Tilton, Dianne Burgess, Dianne Stokes, Jackie Khars, and Arthur Brown stay busy all day long aiding Mr. Blum, Miss Sease, Mrs. Mixson, and Mrs. Boulware.

Many people working together are necessary for a huge school system like ours to be successful. Services are an integral part of Flora, and without them we could not operate. Office assistants, both in the main office and the little school offices, perform the various duties which keep our school in action. Other students volunteer to assist teachers in varied capacities. Pictured here are only a few of the many services rendered at Flora; but all of the cooperative help of the students is invaluable.

Mr. Stokes, Sponsor, and the P.A. Announcers, Donald Devet, Vicki Eslinger, Robert Johnson, Ellen DaVega, and George Thomas, give us important information and instructions every morning and afternoon.

Mrs. Rowe, our dietician, supervises the serving of healthy school lunches in our very popular cafeteria.

Appreciated By All



Mr. Fisher always does an excellent job of keeping Flora's equipment repaired.

Mrs. Davis, our nurse, replenishes her supplies.

The Football Program Committee: Angela Bultman, Ginny Lentz, Charlotte Knox, Co-Chairman; Rhetta Hartin, Betsy Cave, and Anne Farmer, Co-Chairman; plans the layout for a football program.

The A.V.A. assistants are concerned with daily distributing the A.V.A. equipment as well as running it and making repairs. Helping Mr. Quattlebaum and Mr. Arnold, Sponsors, distribute the projectors are Jerry Burns, Bob Johnson, Vincent Morrow, and Wesley Porterfield.

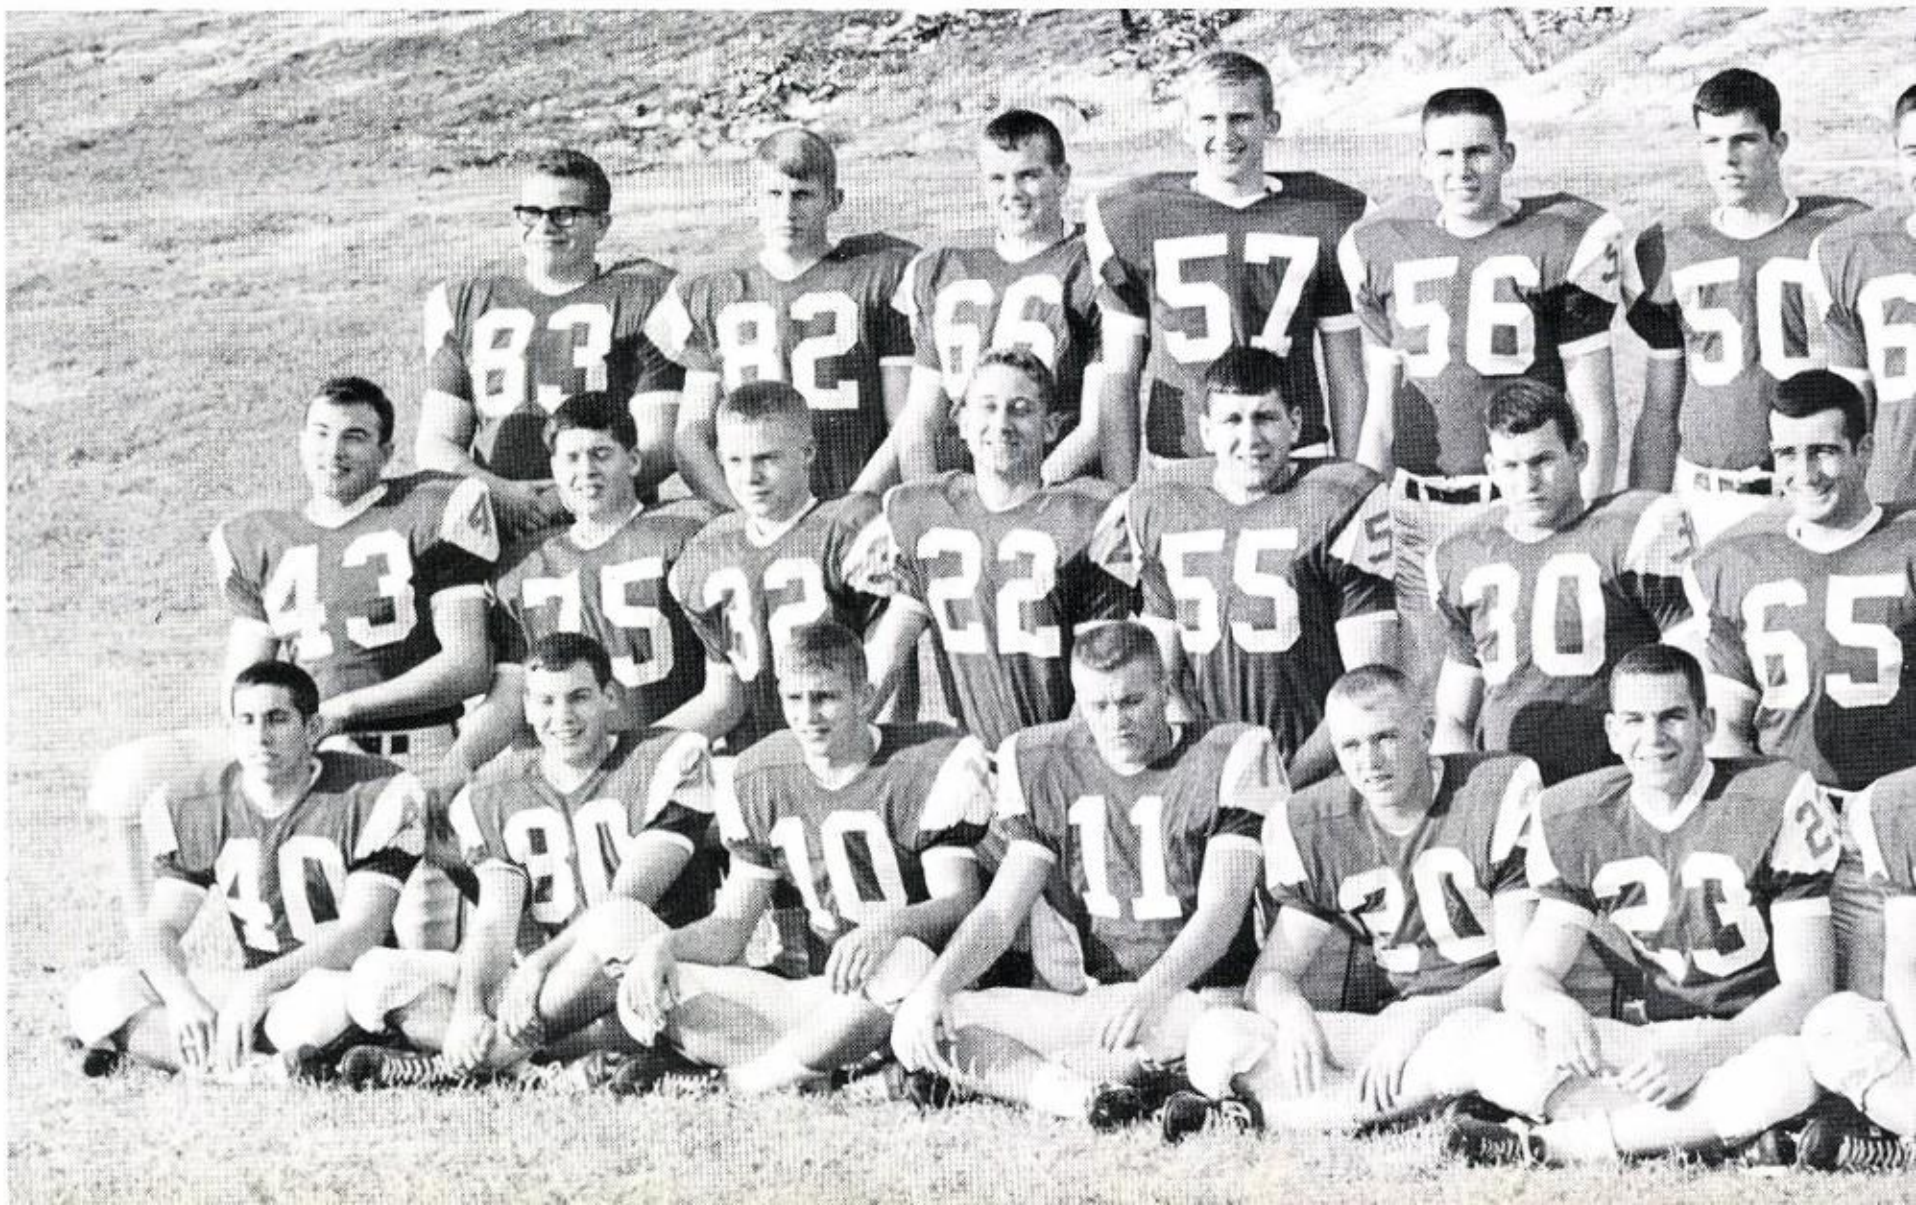
Falcons Are Area Champions

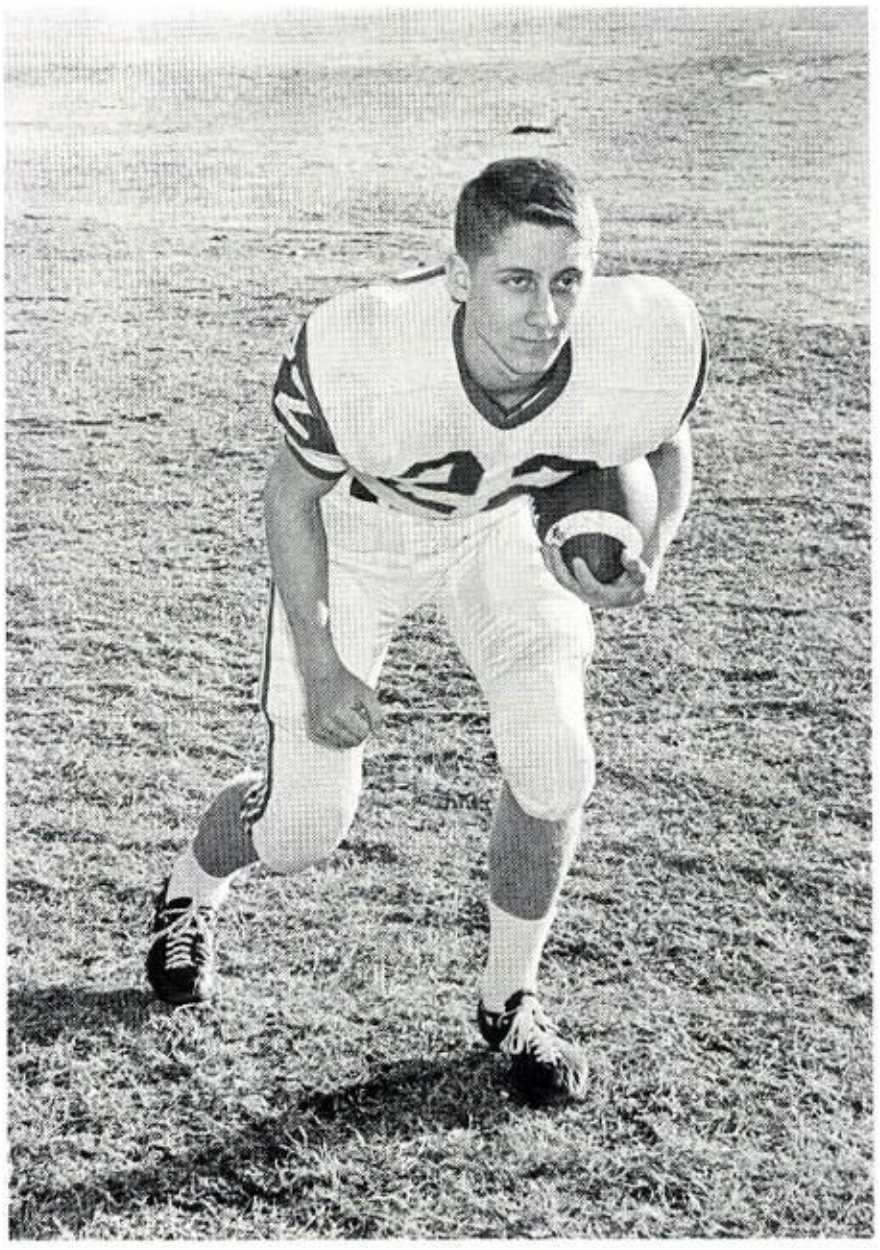


Many Players Win Honors

"Flora 17, Rock Hill 14." With this headline and a magnificent 9-3 record, A. C. Flora completed another tremendous season.

Although pre-season forecasts showed little hope for the Falcons, the indomitable spirit of the boys, plus the coaching genius and hard-shell discipline of Coaches Pinkerton and Richardson, produced a well-knit, never to-be-forgotten team.

Many of our players were awarded post season honors as tribute to their fine performances. Pope Lawson, Sandy Daniel, Byron Bigby, Claude Belk, John Freeman, and Bill Johnson were named to the All-Area team, with honorable mention going to John Macmurphy and Art Fusco. These Falcons and many others combined to make the 1963-1964 season a season to remember.



Pope Lawson was Flora's leading ground gainer. Named Area Back of the Year and Area Player of the Year, as well as first team All Big 16 and All-Area Halfback, Pope will be back next year to lead the Falcons.

Football Camp Pays Off

A. C. Flora has in its summer training camp a training method unique in this area. For the last two weeks of the summer, Flora's football hopefuls live at the school, sleeping in the gym and eating in the cafeteria. The boys practice twice a day and attend lectures in between; but, as the pictures above and below show, the Falcons enjoyed every minute of it.

Excelsior, Dunlap, Excelsior!

With very few experienced players back this year, the Falcons exceeded all expectations and moved on to a winning season. Next year's team will have much greater experience. With men like Daniel, Lawson, Johnson, Fusco, Dunlap, Pilcher, Dyson, Pruett, Little, Twork, and Chavious, returning, the future looks bright indeed for next year's team.

What a happy moment for the new Miss Scarlett and Blue—Miss Nancy McMeen.

Ann McDonald and Barbara Roberts, Maids of Honor, appear radiant, as the festivities progress.

Homecoming— A Time Worth Remembering

Flora's second annual Homecoming was for many Falcons the brightest game of the season. Football, fun, and fall blended together to make this year's festivities the best yet and to set a high standard for years to come.

During the day, pep rallies kept spirits high. "Spirit water" was provided after school, and just before game time the Falcons whooped it up while the Gamecocks burned in effigy at the annual bonfire rally.

Following a short tea, sponsored by the cheerleaders and Home Economics Department, the parade to Memorial Stadium began. Sponsors and special guests shivered in their open convertibles while Key Club's Falcon Float swayed happily in the cool night air.

The half-time ceremonies were climaxed by the naming of Miss Scarlet and Blue, Nancy McMeen, and her lovely attendants, Barbara Roberts and Ann McDonald.

Oh yes! There was a football game. The Falcons rolled over Sumter by a score of 20 to 7, continuing their march to the Area Championship. This year's Homecoming—truly A TIME WORTH REMEMBERING.

J. V.'s Compile 10-2 Record

This year's Junior Varsity team, coached by Mr. Warner Montgomery and Mr. Al Hough, is one of the best in school history. Even after losing a great many players from last year's championship team, the boys performed well, compiling a ten and two record for the year. Next year, Flora's varsity will be counting heavily on the strength and skill of these boys to produce yet another winning Falcon team.

Crayton And Keenan Provide Future Stars

The B-squad, composed of ninth graders from Crayton and Keenan, is a training ground for future J. V. and Varsity teams. This year's team, under the able leadership of Coaches Jerry Redman and Joe Weathers, compiled a 6-3-1 record. Flora expects much in the future from these young Falcons.

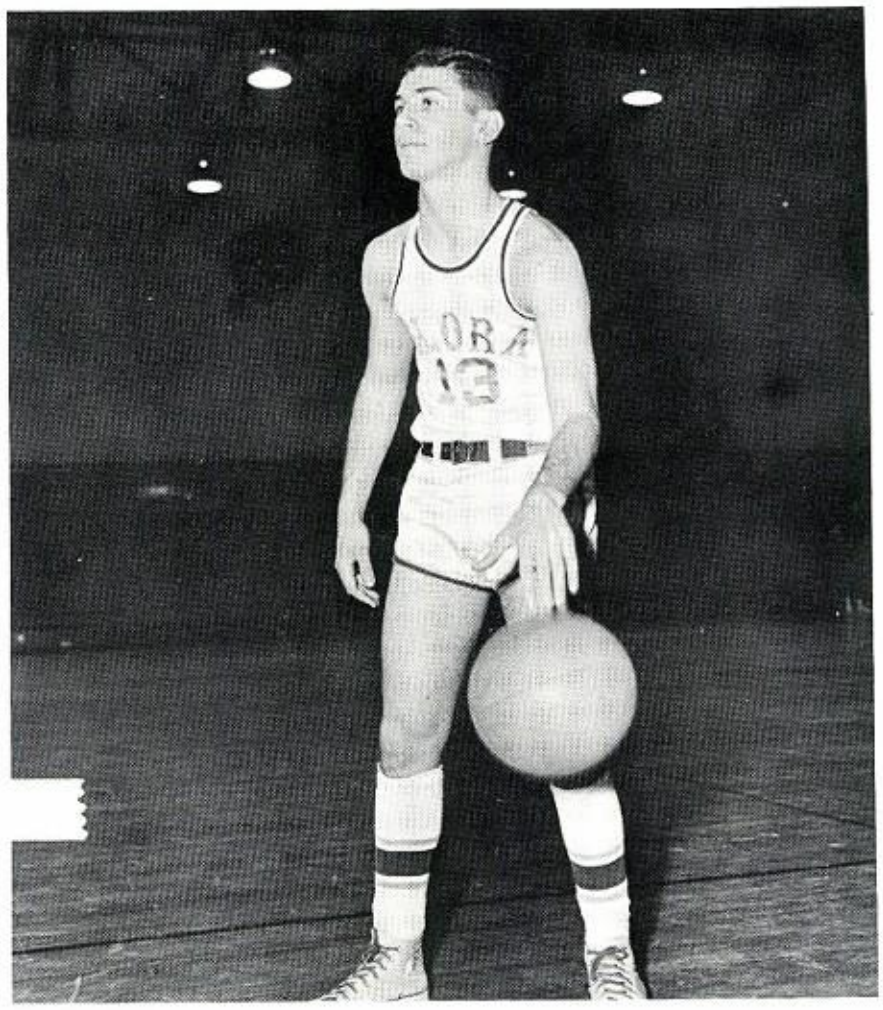
Jerry Scurry, forward. With remarkable skill and speed, Jerry Scurry has played all three positions with notable proficiency. His awards which include All-City and State Tournament, All-Area, and All-Regional AAA Player is a fitting tribute. His power to sink the ball in a squeeze enabled the Falcons to capture many a victory.

Nard Fleischman, guard. In his last year of playing, Nard has increased his knowledge and skill of performance. His "no clutch" ability has won him the respect and admiration of fellow players. Due to this, he was selected as Area Player of the Week.



Senior Players Spark Winning Season

Who can forget the thrill, warmth, color, and unity of a basketball game? This sensation, experienced only once in a lifetime, is captivated by memory. This golden age is marked by competition, motivation, and determination. Basketball is but a minute part of this age. Still, it is one definite part which we will cherish as a time worth remembering.

Bountifully supplied with players of height, speed, and accuracy, Coach Albert Hough has accordingly produced a varsity team second to none. This team has always provided a thrilling exhibition—exerting its strength and abilities in an almost uncanny way. With only two seniors leaving, next year's expectation should far exceed this year's. The trust placed in them has stirred the team to uphold the grandeur of the soaring Falcon.

Returning next year, Frankie Lemond, selected as both an All-Regional and All-Area Player, proves that four against one is fair.

From toil and tears comes victory. Coach Hough gathers his victorious Falcons after any number of Dreher games.

J. V. Has Outstanding 11-3 Record

In all sports there is a period of training before the time of glory. The junior varsity is no exception to this rule. Because of their interest and hard work, Flora students will always have a varsity team good enough to represent their alma mater.

The junior varsity coach, Mr. Jerry Redman, has led his team to an envious record of eleven wins to only three losses—winning very decisively over our closest rivals. This is concrete proof that our future varsity will have the strength and experience to overcome any and all obstacles it will encounter.

Coach Jerry Redman and Manager Alan Weis have the responsibility of preparing varsity material.

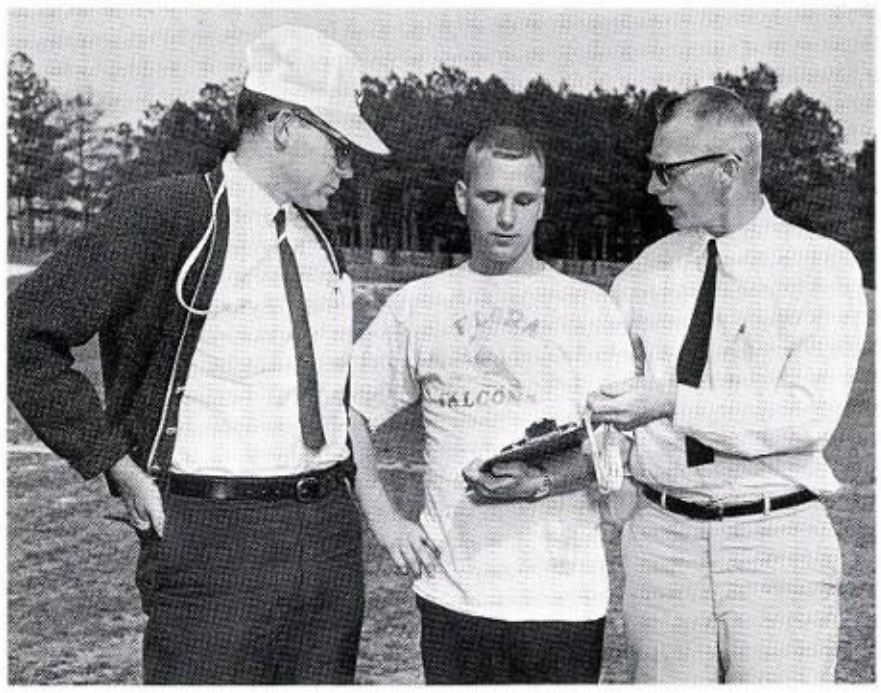
Distance runners Hunter Clarkson, Jay Pearson, Bill Mixson, and Barry Moore take a warm-up lap.



Assistant Coach Al Hough and Manager Johnny Parker go over practice times with Coach Frank Richardson.

Records Fall In 1964

The nineteen sixty-four track season should be the best yet for A. C. Flora. New school records have been set in many events. Standouts for the cindermen include Carl Ellsworth, Ronnie Asbill, and Pope Lawson in sprints, Ricky Praete in the 440, Jay Pearson in the half-mile, and Bob Neely in the pole vault and the shot put. The many younger boys on the team will make Flora's track squad a competitor for the seasons to come.

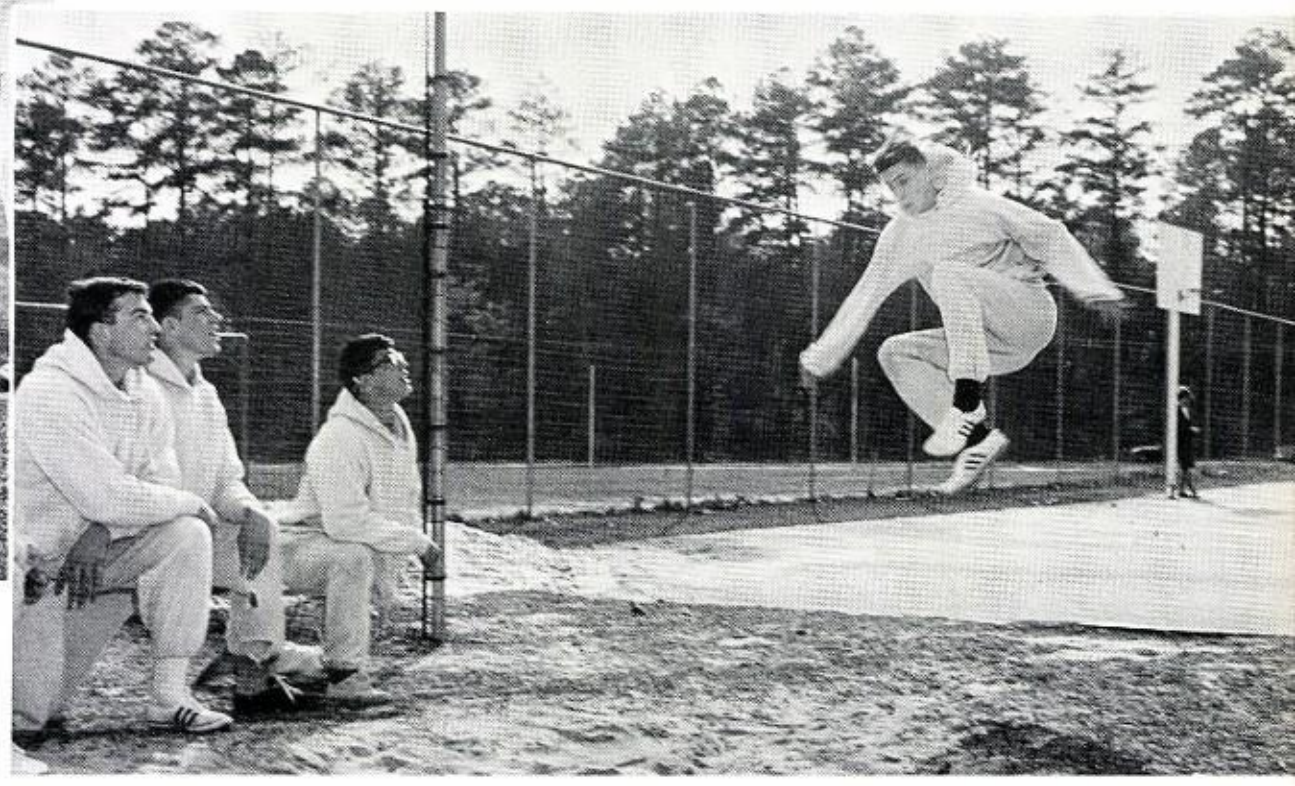
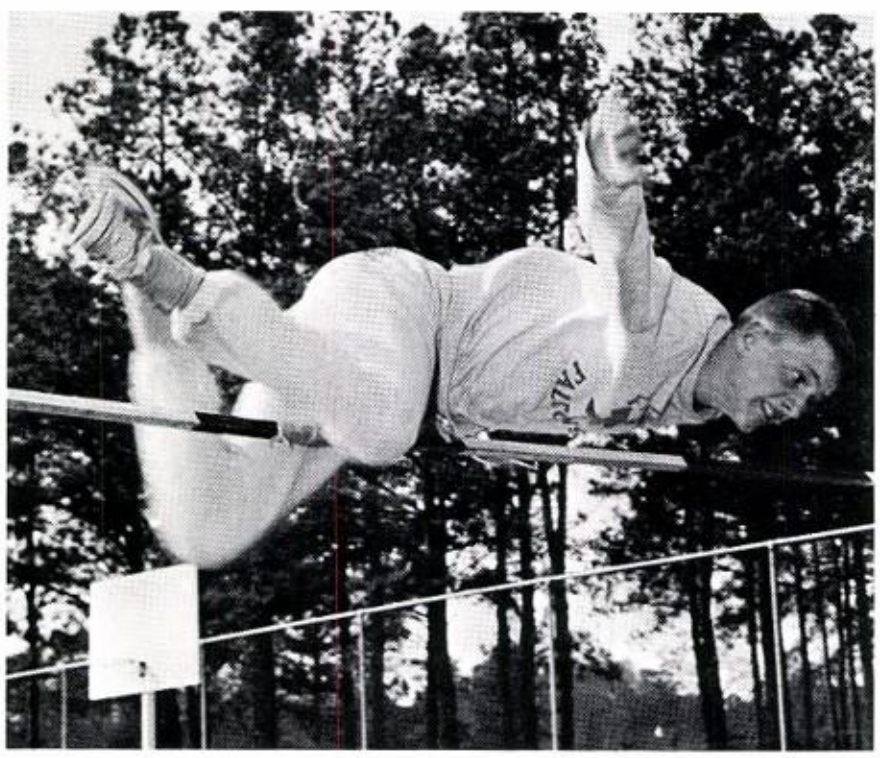
Come on Bob, heave it! urge Keith Belser, Byron Bigby, and John Macmurphy as Bob Neely shows his form in putting the shot.

Frank Little takes off as other track men watch.



Strong Competition Sparks Victory

Ouch! That's a long way down! exclaims John Barr as he glides over the bar.



A winning combination—Lawson to Ellsworth.

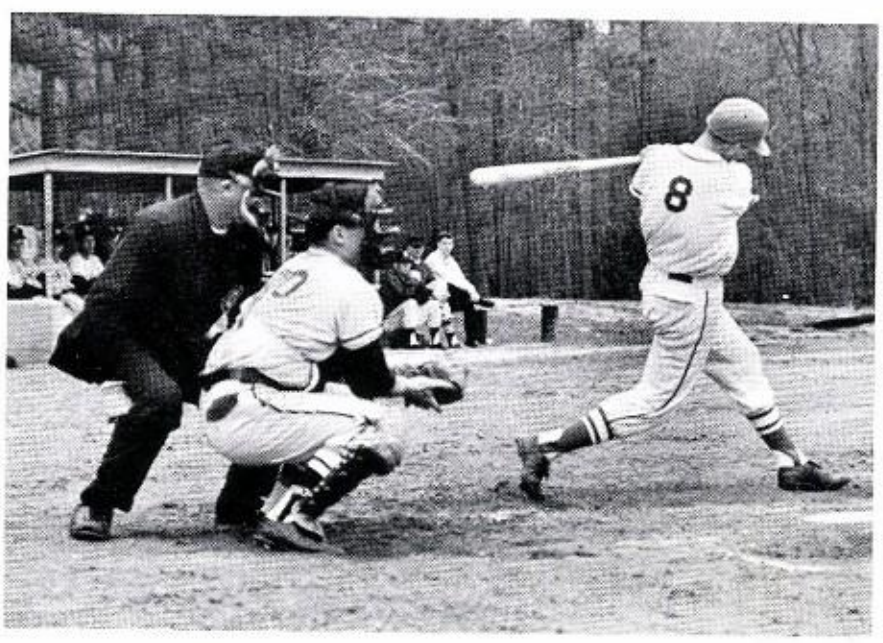
With many senior standouts such as catcher Tommy Linton and first baseman Steve Hendley, this year's baseball team promises to be the best in Flora's history. Much will depend on the pitching ability of David Stallworth and on David Dunlap's shortstop plays.

Under the coaching of Mr. Jim Pinkerton, the boys have been given lessons in sportsmanship and fairplay.

Coach Jim Pinkerton sits through an anxious moment during the season's opener.



Tommy Linton slams a long one in the Dreher game.

Diamond Nine Aim For Best Season Ever

The Baseball team relaxes in the new dugout for a picture. Back Row: Perman Chavious, Sonny Meetze Bobby Giles, Tommy Linton, Larry Little, Chuck White, Albert Whiteside, Steve Hendley, Frank Basnett, Colie Dyson, David Dunlap, Jay McAlister, Ricky Boyce, Jack Barwick, and John Floyd. Front Row: David Stallworth, Art Fusco, Sammy Pruett, Dan McLeod, and Stanley Robinson.

Third baseman Jay McAlister makes it look easy.

GOLF

Golf Team Rated Par-Excellent

The Golf team, having finished fourth in the State High School Tournament last year, is looking forward to an even better season under the guidance of Mr. Raymond L. Coxe, the team's coach. With fine playing expected from Bobby Foster, Danny Fulmer, Steve Huggins, and Robert Tobias, the Falcons can be expected to preserve the excellent name that Flora holds in all sports.

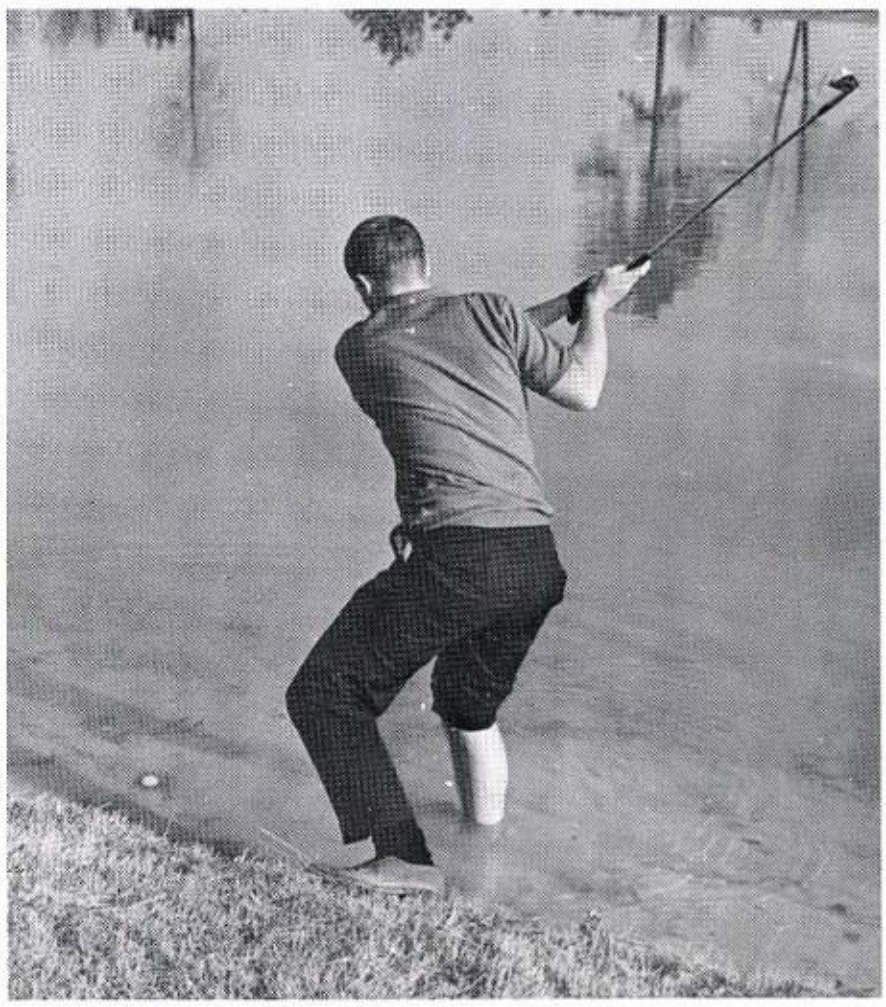
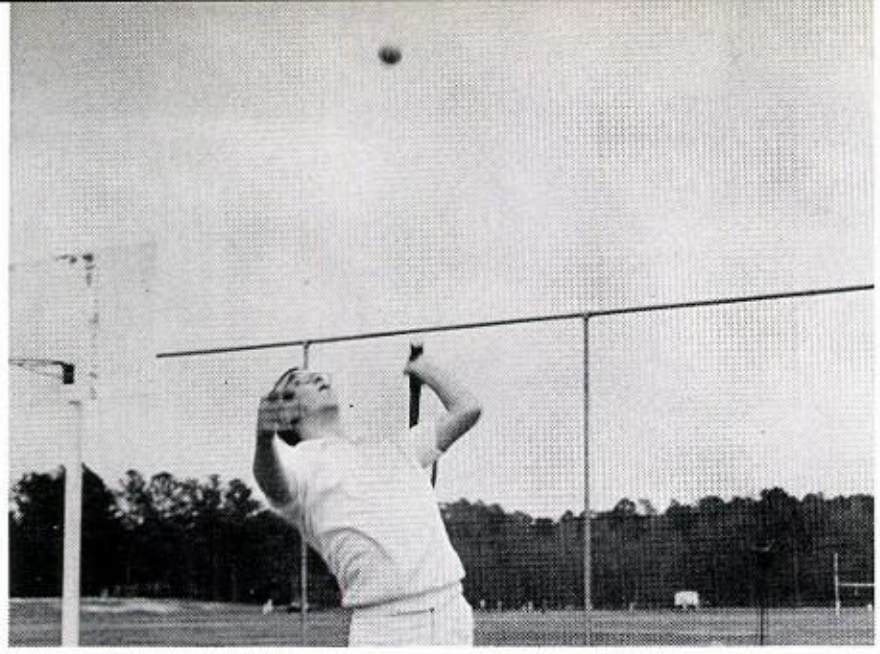
Bobby Foster, Columbia City Champion, shows the driving style that enabled him to capture the title.

A nightmare shot? For some, yes—for Gary Silverfield, no.





Allen Robinson practices his serve at an afternoon session.

Captain Randy Barre and Sponsor W. E. Carson, Jr., head for Orangeurg for an out-of-town match.

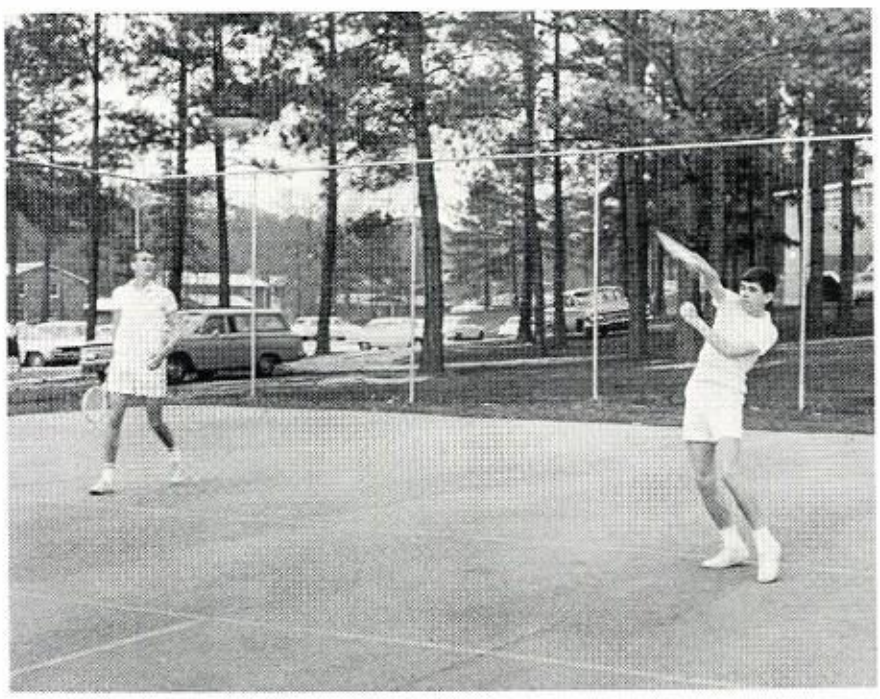
Netmen Have Potent Future

After the more rigorous sports of football, basketball and baseball have become merely spectator sports, the unique game of tennis will still be played by the old as well as the young. In high school, tennis is in the background. But in later years it will become stronger in the memory of all. The greatly appreciated influence of the sponsor, Mr. W. E. Carson, will be most strongly remembered by the tennis players.

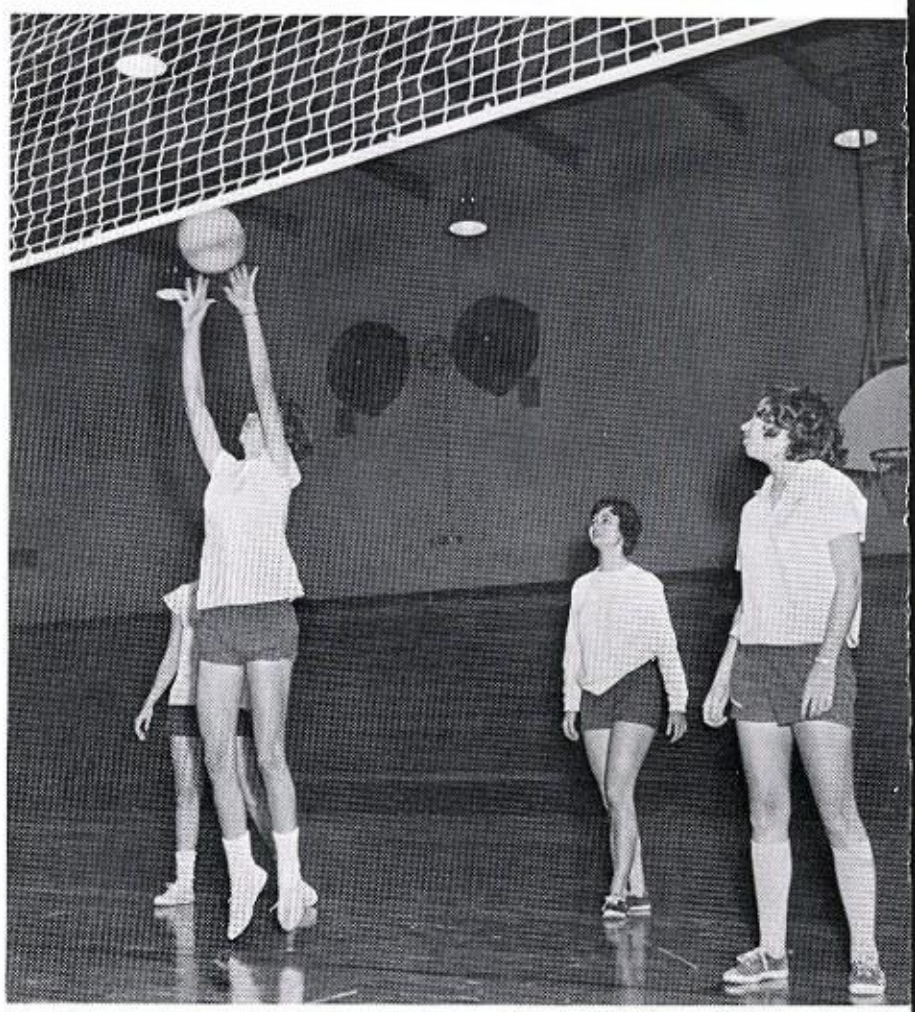
George Little shows his strength and skill in a volley.

High ranking team members, Allan Pregnall and Johnny Wingfield, practice their doubles game.



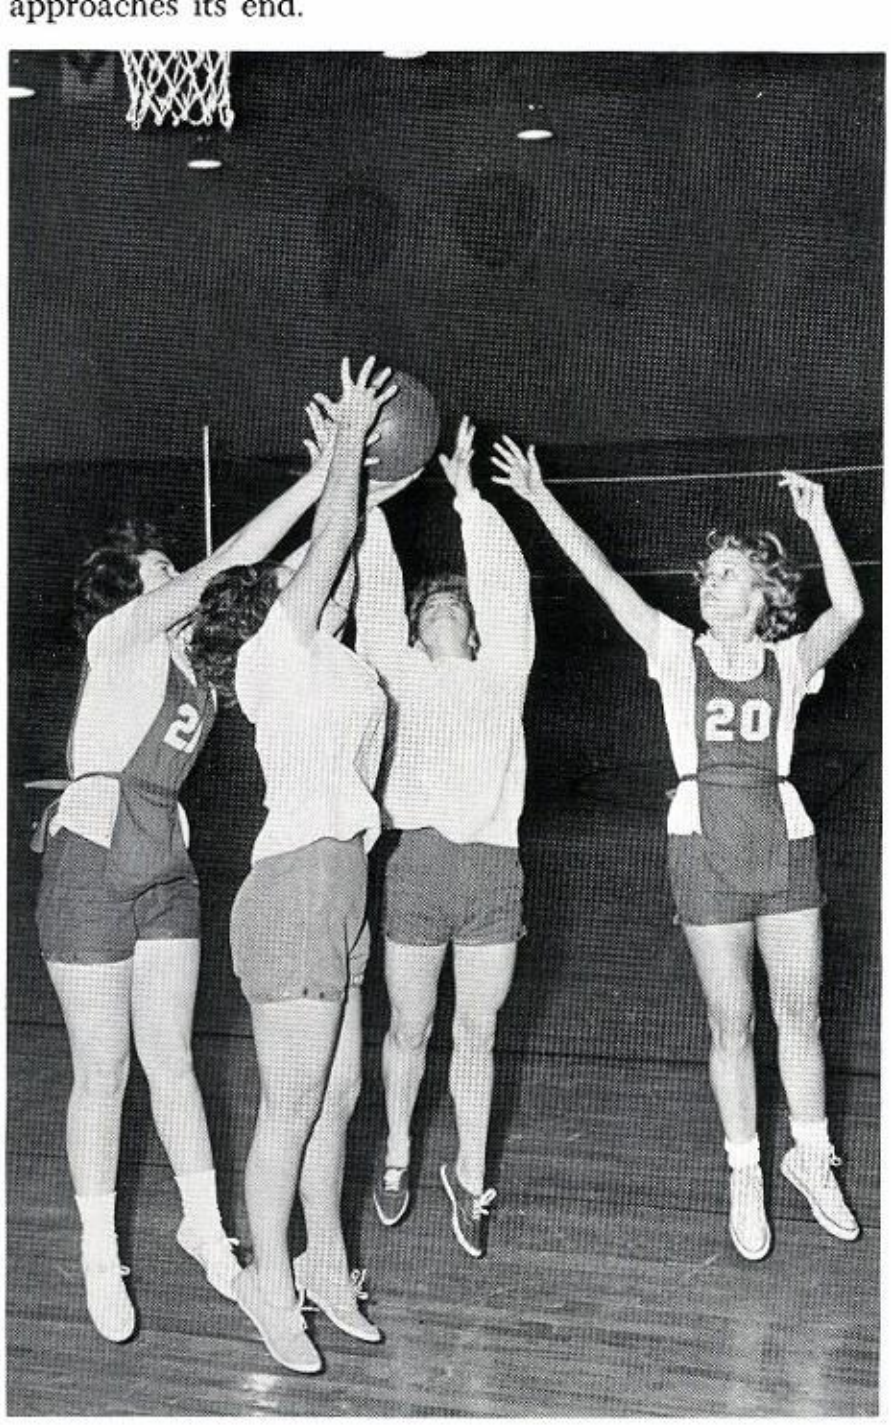
G.A.A.

The Girl's Athletic Association is an organization that not only provides a useful way for girls to spend their afternoons but promotes friendship, leadership, good sportsmanship, and many good times to remember. Through Mrs. Marshall's and Miss McDonald's sponsorship, these girls have been able to excel in their athletic endeavors.



Brenda Mathias returns the serve while Tracy Richardson, Karen Marshall, and Ann Middleton wait for the next one.

All four girls, Peggy MacMillan, Irene Knox, Caci Cole, and Charlotte Knox, grab for the ball hastily as the game approaches its end.

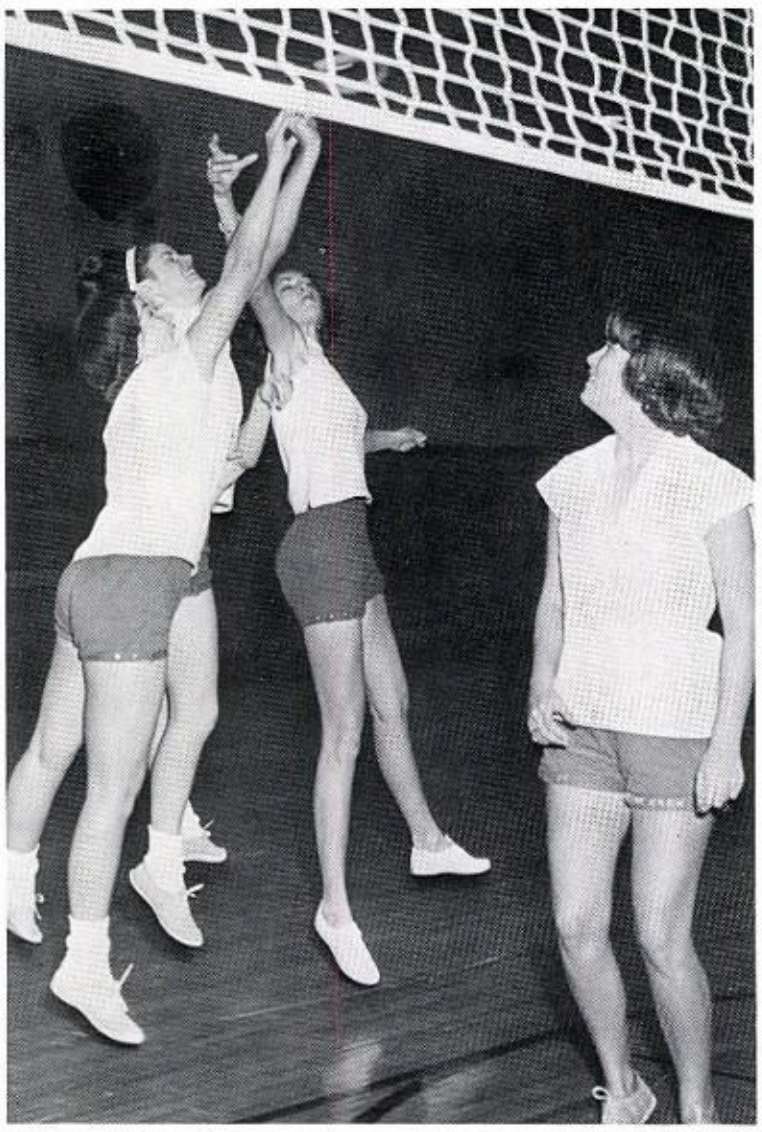


Mrs. Jay Marshall and Miss Janice McDonald, sponsors for the G.A.A., take inventory over all the equipment.

Virginia Stewart is hoping for a bull's eye while Mary Turner is preparing to shoot.

Feminine Falcons Participate In Sports

Ruthie Turner, Virginia Stewart, and Dawn Giles attempt to catch the deck tennis ring as Irene Knox anxiously watches.



After Charlotte Knox's brilliant serve, Peggy MacMillan prepares to slam it back.

The 1964 Miss Falcon Contest

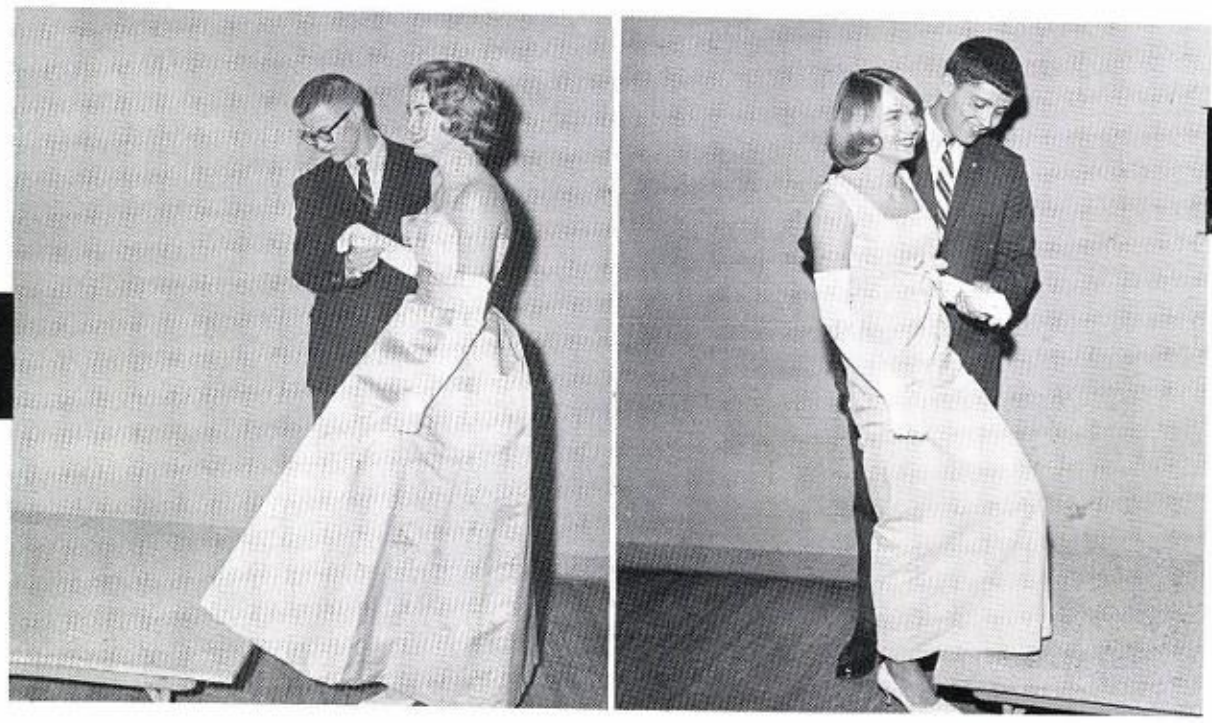
The students begin the Miss Falcon Contest every year by casting ballots for the loveliest girls . . .

Then suddenly—it's three days before the contest and decorators leave traces of glitter, glue, and cut cardboard on the gym floor . . .

Last minute changes are made in the melody and words of the new "Miss Falcon Song" to be introduced . . .

The long awaited night finally arrives! All dresses are lovely, ready and waiting . . .

Her heart flutters a little and perhaps skips a beat as all eyes turn and focus on her . . .



The excited, chosen contestants first learn of their acceptance through the Winged Press . . .

Beautiful visions of satin, net, and taffeta take shape in each girl's mind as she diligently searches for "the" dress . . .

Buying a dress is one thing but waiting for November 27th is another. Daydreams and perhaps a little excitement dwell in each girl's heart as she waits . . .

Time grows shorter and excitement mounts higher as each is told where to walk and stand on the eve of contest . . .

Though always lovely, the girls go one step further and experiment with glamour . . .

These are the judges . . .

These Are The Chosen . . .

1964 time to remember

And so the last, frantic, midnight page is turned; the last class is over in that old familiar classroom down the hall; a lingering good-by is finally said. You strain to wave an instant more. The year is over.

Only yesterday these halls lived for you, with you, through you; vibrant, teeming, awash in the tears and laughter of emerging life. But now it's not the same. Now it's just a lonely gym, a dusty hallway, an empty chair. It's a hazy picture splashed on life's too-shallow face; memories that merge and drift away, sinking, shifting, fading. These were your friends; this was your life. Nineteen sixty-four . . . A TIME WORTH REMEMBERING.

Hart,
Hope we'll have as much fun next year as we've had this.
Remember, the only way to be a success is to be a "manager"?
Bill Brooks

Robert, (alias the duffer)
I have enjoyed playing golf with you this year, and I hope you'll work on your game so I would have to beat
you so bad.
Dwight

Little Hart,
Well, this year has really brought me closer to the Harts and I'm sure that's why this year has been so great. Please stay a Hart and help me keep up with your brother next year.
Love ya,
Ellen

Dearest Robert Hart,
It has be exceedingly pleasant you being able to serve thee as trainer manager of the team. How! Best of luck I wish in the future to a swell cat.
Keep your tool cool.
Lanny Kendall
Cez Crocodile or something.

Dear Hart,
I've really enjoyed knowing you this past year, we've had a few laughs too. Hope you manage next year. I want some free equipment.
Best wishes to a real
fine boy,
Pearl

Hi Walter,
I hope you can see my trophy sometimes (Yeah!)
It was a great summer and I will see you on the golf course,
Ted

Hart,
You're about the stupidest English student I've ever seen - why don't you grow up, I'm so smart & no, seriously, you're a real great guy and I know you will go a long way in life
Best wishes
Always
Dirk

Bobby,
It's been great in history this year with dear old Mrs. Lupold.
Have a great summer.
Good luck with your
golf game,
Pat Brehmer

Bobby,
We'd have really had some fun trained in homeroom this year. You are a precious boy and a good friend. Have a fun-filled summer and come back next year sober! (please)

Love ya'
Betty

Bobby,
We've had a great time with those World History practice teachers
Stay sober
Jim

Porkus,
You are a real good trainer. You handle those Board kids like a pro. Keep up the good work.
Bobby,
I've really enjoyed being in Latin with you and Nesta this year. Best of luck at Flora next year.
Later,
Lynn Tate

Bobby,
Weekend
a lot of fun in homeroom this year, haven't we?
You're a real sweet boy and I'm sure you'll go far in life.
See ya next year.
Love,
Katharine

Bobby,
I've enjoyed being in homeroom with you this year and I think that you are a very fine person. Good luck in all your endeavors.
Raven McCrory

Bobby,
I've enjoyed being in Latin with you this year and I hope that you will be in my class next year.
Later,
Pat

Bobby,
I've enjoyed being in homeroom with you this year. You are a very fine person. I think that you are a good student and I like you as a friend.
Later,
Pat

Bobby,
I've enjoyed being in homeroom with you this year. You are a very fine person. I think that you are a good student and I like you as a friend.
Later,
Pat

Bobby,
This year has been pretty great, agree?!?! Even though we had to go through that ordeal of having M.S.C. for English. You're a great guy, don't ever change. By the way, how do you manage to snow your teachers?
Love always
Ellen

Bobby,
Sure are dumb but you're still a great fellow. Don't get too good at the game & hate you. Summer & game this beat me at it. It's impossible to be a big junior. and you'll be a big junior next year
Skip
Tall

Bobby,
This year has been a lot of fun. We have had lots of fun in Mrs. C. room. Hope to see you next year.
Love always
Rosi

Bobby,
You are a great golfer and I hope to see you this summer and next year. It's been a blast. Raise hell this summer.
Good luck,
Greg Layman

Hart,
I've enjoyed knowing you these past years. If you don't slack off, you're going to be a golf Pro. I'm sittin' there good and I am ready to take you on.
Good luck.
Tiffe

Bobby,
You are a great guy and a good friend. Have a nice summer and I'll see ya next year. Bobby M.
